3 Divisions Begin Duties

Volunteer Workers Open Community Fund's Drive

The annual tri-state Community Fund drive, seeking a goal of $83,000, opened officially today as about 100 workers in the public service, public affairs and professional divisions began solicitation of an estimated 1,200 prospective donors.

David E. Beatty, campaign chairman, called for "the fullest participation by the community" as the drive got under way. "For the sake of better community life, we need the services of the YMCA, the Salvation Army, the Girl Scouts, the Boy Scouts, the Recreation Council and the USO," he said. "The Community Fund alone can keep these agencies alive."

"Quietly and without praise, these agencies work to bring added sunshine to the needy, to build stronger character and bodies in our youth and to curb delinquency among all ages," Beatty said.

"Who can measure the chaos, should these services be interrupted and lost to this community?" Beatty asked. "It becomes a responsibility of citizenship. Since every home, every business and every industry benefits, each of us should participate."

When all workers are recruited for other phases of the drive, more than 800 volunteers will be participating in the month - long campaign to contact about 9,000 contributors.

The advance gifts division, headed by Winston A. Porter, virtually has wound up its canvass of approximately 100 donors. Final reports from the 20 women volunteers are expected to be completed this afternoon. The group started its solicitation Sept. 25.

T. Fred Edwards, commercial manager of the Ohio Bell Telephone Co. and president of the Chamber of Commerce, is serving as chairman of the public service division of the campaign. This group of 40 volunteers will contact about 300 persons employed in public utilities, taxi and bus companies, trucking firms, radio stations and express, railway and telegraph offices.

Edwards has been active for many years in the Boy Scout movement.

He served as a scoutmaster and also was a member of the District Boy Scout Council. He now serves as a committeeman of the Orchard Grove Community Methodist Church Cub Scout Pack. He is a director of the Red Cross Chapter and a past president of the Rotary Club. Edwards resides on Orchard Grove Ave. He is a member of the First United Presbyterian Church.

Team captains serving with Edwards include William Black, Harold Sneddon, Alton G. Weber, Alvin Babb and Arthur H. Simmers.

The professional division, which includes about 20 volunteers, is headed by City Solicitor Joseph W. Cooper. The division will contact approximately 100 donors, including doctors, dentists, attorneys, chiropractors, chiropodists, osteopaths, optometrists, ministers and other related professional groups.

Cooper's interest in Community Fund activities stems from his service as a member of the Advisory Board of the Salvation Army. He also is a member of the Rotary Club and the Orchard Grove Community Methodist Church. He resides on North St.

Serving as professional division team captains are Mrs. W. J. Horgner, Mrs. W. E. Dunlap, Mrs. William Sulkes, Mrs. James Bennett, Mrs. Cooper and Mr. and Mrs. James Gardner.

The largest of the three divisions, the public affairs branch, is headed by I. J. Vorndran, former Columbiana County auditor. About 50 workers in this division will solicit contributions from an esti-

Dance To Open Activities

Homecoming At Irondale Waited Wednesday Night

IRONDALE — The community's 19th annual homecoming observance this week will open Wednesday night with a round and square dance from 9 to 12 in Stanton Local High School, committee chairman announced today.

Activities will include selection of a queen, a home talent show and fire department demonstration, plus a pep rally, football game and a round dance this weekend.

All activities are scheduled on Eastern Standard Time. Mayor Quenton Henderson said.

The Chetock Brothers' band from Irondale will furnish music for Wednesday night's dance. William Hoobler and Paul Tice are co-chairmen.

Scheduled Thursday night at 8 in the high school is a minstrel show with local talent. The name of the homecoming queen will be announced Thursday night at the dance, with the winner to be one of four senior girls of Stanton High.

The queen will be the girl who selects an "odd colored" rose from an arrangement of flowers. The queen committee includes Mrs. Jack Tolson, Mrs. Merle Fagan and Mrs. Paul Ferry.

Queen candidates are Misses Carol Sprouse, Judy Boyd, Suzanne Russell and Elizabeth Thomas. The winner will be crowned at half-time ceremonies at the Stanton Local-Salineville football game Saturday afternoon at 2.

Friday night's activities include a demonstration by the Irondale volunteer fire department and Civil Defense workers at 6 at the high school grounds. A pep rally will follow at 7:30, with a bonfire planned. The high school cheerleaders and football team will ride through the community on an open vehicle.

Following the pep rally, residents may visit all churches in the community, the village hall and the Masonic Lodge.

Various athletic contests for youngsters are planned Saturday morning at 9:30 at Memorial Athletic Field. Merle Fagan is chairman. Following the Stanton-Salineville game at 2, both squads will be feted at a dinner in the high school, at which everyone may attend by purchasing tickets.

Al Lorello's band from Steubenville will provide music for Saturday night's round dance from 9 to 12 in the high school gymnasium.

Joint community worship services will be held Sunday at 10 a. m. in the Presbyterian Church. A coffee hour will follow.

Reds Say No Military Bases Set For Moon

LONDON (AP)—A Soviet scientist asserted today the Soviet Union has no plans to build military bases on the moon.

Writing in Pravda, Z.K. Fedorov of the Soviet Academy of Sciences said that Soviet scientists are studying outer space "with a peaceful aim."

McElroy Claims U.S. Knew Of Reds' Rockets

MANILA (AP)—U.S. Defense Secretary Neil H. McElroy today said the latest Soviet space satellite is another indication of "what we have known to be true"—that the Soviets have more powerful boosters than the United States.

Divided Talks Set Today In Dock Walkout

NEW YORK (AP)—Representatives of both sides in the five-day-old longshoremen's strike planned to meet separately today with federal mediators.

But there was practically no hope that they would confer with each other. A mediator doubted there would be joint negotiations before next month.

The prospect of no progress heightened the possibility that the government would move to end by court order the strike that has paralyzed ports from Maine to Texas.

The economic impact of the walkout by 85,000 dock workers—catching the nation in the throes of the most severe steel strike in its history—has set off a flood of complaints to Washington.

If the efforts of federal mediator Robert H. Moore fail to crack the negotiation deadlock, President Eisenhower could invoke the Taft-Hartley law for an 80-day return to work period.

Moore was not optimistic. He was scheduled to meet with officials of the International Longshoremen's Assn. today, then confer with representatives of the New York Shipper's Assn.

Lawyers at the National Labor Relations Board in Washington worked on plans to go to court for an injunction—even in advance of any use of the Taft-Hartley emergency provisions.

Shippers in New Orleans, where the first mass walkout began Oct. 1, want the NLRB to seek an injunction stopping the strike on grounds the ILA failed to file a required 30-day advance strike notice.

The strike caught shippers and many unions chiefs by surprise.

5 U.S. Fliers Fight Japs In Bloody Brawl

TOKYO (AP)—Five U.S. airmen and a group of Japanese men clashed in a bloody brawl in near-by Tachikawa Sunday.

One U.S. air policeman was badly cut by a flying beer bottle. Another had to beat his way through an angry crowd of Japanese with his night stick.

The Air Force put an off-limits ban on two streets in the night club and bar district of the city, home of Tachikawa Air Base, America's biggest air supply terminal in Japan.

Japanese police held four Japanese men for investigation of assault. The Air Force said it does not contemplate any punishment of the airmen.

The injured air policeman was Airman Robert L. Greene, 22, of Howertons, Va. Fifteen stitches were required to close the gash in his head. The other airmen suffered only minor injuries.

U.S. Experts Tip Hats To Soviet Union

Withhold Big Slaps On Back; Will Await Rocket Performance

WASHINGTON (AP)—American scientists have tipped their hats to the Soviets who launched a new space vehicle Sunday.

But they withheld any big slaps on the back until they see how the space traveler performs.

There was no attempt to discredit the Soviet launching itself—only a wait and see attitude on its performance. The U.S. space officials did not know for sure just what kind of a vehicle had been launched, where it was to go and what it was to do. Their information was limited almost entirely to that given out by the Soviets—and that was vague.

T. Keith Glennan, head of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration, said he had received word of the launching with considerable interest.

"We recognize the significance of this effort to send a probe around the moon and extend our congratulations," he said. "With the rest of the world scientific community we shall await the data from this new probe in its journey between the earth and the moon."

There was a question as to whether the vehicle was meant to make one or more circles around the moon or merely include it in a big orbit around the earth.

First Soviet reports described the vehicle as an "interplanetary station" that would whirl around the moon and then go into a cigar-shaped orbit around the earth.

Moscow Planetarium experts said the vehicle was in fact only another earth satellite that for one circuit would include the moon within its flight.

Dr. Fred L. Whipple, director of the Smithsonian Astrophysical Observatory at Cambridge, Mass., also questioned use of the term "interplanetary station."

"I suspect they are using a fancy term to give people the impression they have something they do not," Whipple said.

Whipple said it was his impression the Soviets put into orbit not a space station but a rocket around the moon.

'Completely Unsatisfactory'

USW Rejects Industry's Proposal To End Walkout

By JOHN MOODY
 PITTSBURGH (AP)—The United Steelworkers' decision-making Wage Policy Committee today rejected as "completely unsatisfactory" a steel industry proposal for ending the 83-day-old nationwide steel strike.

USW President David J. McDonald said an immediate effort would be made to resume negotiations with the steel industry. He said he was hopeful a session could be arranged yet today.

The 170-member Wage Policy Committee, which must act on all contract proposals, was told to stand-by for a possible second session later this afternoon.

The meeting—closed to newsmen—followed by one day a session of the union's 33-member Executive Board at which a new industry contract proposal, including a money package, reportedly was found unsatisfactory.

A recommendation of the Executive Board was handed to the Wage Policy Committee shortly after today's session had started. Several members who had attended the Executive Board meeting said the industry offer was rejected unanimously.

The pessimistic reports raised speculation President Eisenhower will invoke the Taft-Hartley law this week and send the half million strikers back to the mills at least for an 80-day cooling-off period.

President David J. McDonald of the Steelworkers would not say if the executive board recommended rejection. But he did say he has the solid support of the striking members.

Even before the board meeting ended, there were reports from Washington that government attorneys were working on plans for quick Taft-Hartley action to stop the costly strike.

The first step would be for the President to declare an emergency and appoint a fact-finding committee. Then, if the committee reports an emergency, a federal court injunction would be sought.

Industry sources earlier reported the management offer would increase labor costs about 16 cents an hour during the life of a two-year contract. But union sources said added labor costs would come closer to 10 cents an hour during a two-year period.

The union and management seldom agree on the costs of labor improvements unless it is a flat wage increase.

In its newest proposal, management offered to apply an estimated eight cents an hour to welfare and pension benefits during the first year and increase wages a similar amount in the second year.

Photographs Expected In New Effort

Gravitational Pull Slows Space Station Launched Sunday

MOSCOW (AP)—The flying Soviet space laboratory will reach its closest distance to the moon Tuesday and make mankind's first photographs of its hidden face, Tass said today.

Slowed by the relentless gravitational tug of the earth, the flying laboratory should come within 4,350 miles of the moon at 5 p.m.—10 a.m. EDT—Tuesday, the official news agency said.

As it approached the moon, the interplanetary station—that's what the Russians call it—has separated from the last stage of the cosmic rocket that launched it Sunday, Tass added.

The agency said that at noon Moscow time—5 a.m. EDT—the station was 248,000 kilometers or 154,000 miles from the earth and over the eastern part of the Indian Ocean. This was well over the halfway mark.

Tass said the apparatus is moving toward the moon more slowly than the first and second Luniks. This is to enable it to pass round the moon and be pulled back to earth instead of flying off into space as did the first moon shot last January.

The unmanned space station has a camera aboard. Its pictures were to be translated into radio signals which would be sent back to the earth.

An unnamed astronomer declared triumphantly over Moscow radio: "It is now a new moon and that means that the other side of the moon is brightly lighted by the rays of the sun. What lies there? Soviet scientists will have the reply to this question before long."

Scientists kept track of the space vehicle by its radio signals, which sounded like notes from a violin.

The launching Sunday on the second anniversary of the birth of the Sputnik I, was heralded on both sides of the Iron Curtain as another giant step in man's adventure into space.

The Soviets indicated some control of the new space station could be exercised from stations on earth. They announced that the "apparatus carried by the third Soviet space rocket" would be switched on for two hours today.

They predicted that the station—the third Soviet cosmic rocket shot aimed at the moon—would stay aloft for a long time because it will approach no closer than 2,000 kilometers—1,240 miles—to the earth.

The flying station was reported loaded with scientific equipment but the official announcements gave no details on it.

Y. K. Fedorov, member of the Soviet Academy of Sciences, said, "The tremendous amount of data gathered by the many measuring devices is being regularly transmitted back to earth."

An announcement said the satellite can broadcast two to four hours a day, drawing its power from solar batteries.

The original announcement said the space station is on a course that should take it around the moon at a distance of about 6,200 miles.

Prof. Harrie S. Massey, chairman of the British National Committee for Space research, said the Soviets "certainly will be making a systematic study of the radiation belt in outer space revealed by the American pioneer rockets. They'll also be measuring the concentration of electrically charged particles in outer space and their nature."

1,106 Fewer Voters Listed For Election

10,721 Qualified To Ballot On Nov. 3 After Board's Check

East Liverpool will have 1,106 fewer qualified electors at the Nov. 3 election than it did in the 1958 general election, the County Election Board said today after completing its official check of city registration, the only subdivision where it is required.

The board's official check showed 10,721 qualified to vote a month from today as compared to 11,478 in November 1958.

The two chief reasons for the decline, Frank R. O'Hanlon, clerk, said are the continued growth of Liverpool and St. Clair Townships and the deaths of registered voters.

The Second Ward continues as the largest in the city with 3,463 qualified. The Fourth Ward registration is 2,843, the First Ward, 2,450, and the Third Ward, 1,963.

Prior to the 1958 election, the Second Ward had 3,661 qualified; the Fourth Ward, 3,100; the First Ward, 2,629, and the Third Ward, 2,088.

Although the number of potential voters has decreased since last year, city registration has increased by 349 since Jan. 1 when the registration totaled 10,372 following a year-end checkup, O'Hanlon said.

The veteran clerk said the official check showed the unofficial total compiled after the Sept. 23 deadline for registering had held up well. The unofficial total was 10,800 but duplicate registrations, deaths and removals from the city eliminated 79.

The board's staff will complete the precinct alphabetical list today—two weeks before the deadline set up state law. The voting lists will be posted in each of the city's 32 polling places between Oct. 19 and 22, O'Hanlon said.

The new registration total shows Precinct 4-F on Pleasant Heights as the largest in the city with 506 voters while the smallest is 3-F with 155.

Five of the precincts showed a drop since Jan. 1 with the largest decline in Precinct 2-D, down 10. The other losses were in 3-F, 4-C, 4-E and 4-G.

One of the unusual facts brought out by the registration was Precinct 2-C total of 379, unchanged since Jan. 1. O'Hanlon pointed out it is rare for a precinct total to remain the same.

Here's a precinct breakdown.

Mr. K. Heads Home; Urges Cold War End

TOKYO (AP)—Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev headed for home today after once more voicing Soviet Communism's determination to end the cold war. But there was no indication his Chinese Communist hosts were climbing on his peace wagon.

Khrushchev flew from Peiping to Vladivostok, capital of the Soviet Far East. During his five-day visit to the capital of Red China, he told Chinese Chairman Mao Tse-tung about his talks with President Eisenhower and attended the celebration of the 10th anniversary of the Communist capture of the Chinese mainland.

In his third speech in Peiping calling for an end to the cold war, Khrushchev said at the airport that the "forces of peace are stronger than ever" and "there is full actual possibility to bar the road to war."

Wynn, Craig Hurl Again In Series Today

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Early Wynn and Roger Craig, the two pitchers who opened the World Series at Chicago last Thursday, oppose each other again today in the fourth game of the baseball classic.

Another record-breaking crowd of more than 92,000 is expected to jam the mammoth Memorial Coliseum. Most of the cheering, you can be sure, will be for the Los Angeles Dodgers. The weatherman looks for clear skies, light to moderate smog and a high temperature of 86 degrees.

The Dodgers, 3-1 winners over the Chicago White Sox Sunday, now lead the best four out of seven series two games to one.

Odds makers from Brooklyn to Las Vegas figure Los Angeles is on the way to a World Series victory. Broadway pegs the Dodgers 2-1 favorites to win and Las Vegas makes Los Angeles the 5-11 favorite.

Aging Carl Furillo, whose timely hitting against Milwaukee in the pennant playoffs put the Dodgers in the series, was the hero Sunday.

His hot single past shortstop Luis Aparicio in the seventh inning with the bases loaded scored Charlie Neal and Norm Larker with the runs that won the ball game.

Each team scored a run in the eighth.

Motorist Hurt On Route 7 As Car Hits Steed

Crash Near Rogers Hurls Stray Animal Into Second Auto

A Jefferson County man was injured when his car struck a horse, knocking it into the path of another auto on Route 7 near Rogers Sunday night in one of two accidents reported over the weekend by the State Highway Patrol at Lisbon.

Robert W. Griffith, 65, of Richmond R. D. 1 was treated at Salem City Hospital for a laceration of the forehead suffered in the crash, which killed the horse, officers reported.

Griffith was driving south about a mile north of Rogers at 7:25 when his car hit the horse, which had wandered onto the road. The animal then was thrown into the path of an oncoming auto operated by Eugene Gearin, 35, of 200 E. Main St., Salineville.

Griffith's 1954 sedan received moderate damage, while Gearin's 1958 sedan had slight damage, the patrol reported. Officers are seeking to identify the owner of the horse.

Charles Higgins, 31, of Rogers R. D. 1 was cited after his car hit the rear of another on Route 30 just north of the city Sunday afternoon about 3.

Higgins' 1954 sedan hit the rear of a 1956 sedan driven by Samuel Black, 20, of Waltersburg, Pa., who was making a turn from the road. Damage was moderate, officers said.

Higgins forfeited a $16 bond when he failed to appear in Municipal Court this morning on a charge of failure to stop in the assured clear distance.

Runaway Auto Strikes Vehicles On Broadway

A runaway auto rolled down the steep Broadway grade Sunday night, crossing the busy E. 3rd St. intersection before striking two parked vehicles on lower Broadway, police reported.

The mishap was one of four accidents reported over the weekend.

Officers said the 1948 sedan owned by Charles Leslie of Smiths Ferry R. D. 1 apparently drifted from its parking place on the right side of the street, crossed the intersection and then struck a parked 1957 sedan owned by

Five Strikes Settled Over Last Weekend

CLEVELAND (AP)—Five strikes which kept more than 7,000 workers off the job last week were settled over the weekend in the Cleveland-Akron-Lorain area.

But three other sizable strikes involving a total of 3,500 continue today at Fruehauf Trailer Co. in Avon Lake and at Cleveland plants of Grabler Manufacturing and Swift & Co. About 1,600 United Auto Workers struck Fruehauf Sept. 25; 1,200 United Steelworkers have been on strike at Grabler since Oct. 1, and 700 United Packinghouse Workers joined in a national walkout against Swift Sept. 2.

Another 26,000 Cleveland-Lorain workers are idle because of the national steel strike.

Here's the box score on the newly settled strikes:

Twinsburg — Chrysler stamping plant's 3,500 production workers and another 500 affected employees began returning to jobs after a strike that started last Tuesday and was called off by the United Auto Workers Sunday.

Akron—General Tire and Rubber Co., shut down by the spread of a wildcat strike that started last Monday and affected 2,000 workers, got back into production after a United Rubber Workers local meeting Sunday voted an end to the walkout.

Lorain—Thew Shovel Co. where two United Steelworkers Union locals representing 900 production and office workers had been striking for 62 days reopened its five plants today. Agreement on a two-year contract was reached Saturday. The Fruehauf strike, which began Sept. 25, involves the Allied Industrial Workers Union whose contract negotiations continued deadlocked on a Saturday meeting.

Cleveland—Marquette division of Curtis-Wright Corp., strikebound for eight weeks, called maintenance workers in today after United Auto Workers Local 527 ratified an agreement providing a six-cent hourly wage boost and settlement of grievances over the discharge of two employees. At Standard Products Co. 600 workers ended a two-day walkout.

William G. Harding, in 1920, was elected president in the first national election in which women were permitted to vote.

British Roar Into Last Lap Of Vote Drive

LONDON (AP)—Britain's Labor and Conservative parties roared into the final lap of their election battle today running neck and neck.

Public opinion polls showed the Laborites led by Hugh Gaitskell had dramatically closed the gap with Prime Minister Harold Macmillan's Conservatives, seeking a third term in the nationwide election of a House of Commons Thursday.

But with only three days to go, a massive and decisive block of voters appeared still undecided.

The Liberal News Chronicle's latest poll indicated the two major parties were each backed by 37½ per cent of the nation's 35,400,000 voters.

With the Liberal party supported by only 4 per cent, the poll showed a huge 20½ per cent had not made up their minds. But when these "don't knows" were asked which party they were more inclined to support, they put Labor ahead 42½ per cent to 41.

When the campaign opened just over two weeks ago, the national opinion polls gave Labor little chance. The Conservatives' popularity then appeared sufficient to send them back with as big or bigger majority than the 52-seat margin they won in 1955. There are 630 seats in the House.

But Labor's vigorous grass roots campaign, their glittering promises of tax cuts and increased old-age pensions and some super-slick television electioneering combined to hack away at the Tory lead.

Macmillan continued to campaign on the plank that his forces had given Britain "peace and plenty," and that his personal diplomacy with the leaders of East and West promised more of the same. He predicted a Conservative victory, telling newsmen Sunday night, "I am more and more confident as the election proceeds."

Laughing Mynah Bird Being Taught English

ST. LOUIS (AP) — A laughing mynah bird named Tiong is learning to talk in a special cage in the offices of the St. Louis Zoo.

Tiong already has a rich vocabulary in Malayan, punctuated by loud, mocking laughter. The idea is to teach him English.

So far it's slow going, although Tiong learned his new name immediately and can repeat it in soprano, alto or bass.

Zoo officials are optimistic, though, and predict Tiong will be on display, talking English, in the children's area of the zoo next year.

Police Chiefs Sound The Warning

The report to the International Association of Police Chiefs on Teamster President James R. Hoffa's bid to organize policemen throughout the nation served two useful purposes.

It reminded the public that Mr. Hoffa has announced he has such a long-range plan. It showed that the police chiefs think the announcement should be taken seriously.

There are undoubtedly many people who found the thought of Mr. Hoffa's entrance into law enforcement so frightening that they quickly put it out of mind as a highly remote possibility.

But the committee which wrote the report to the police chiefs' convention warned that this is perhaps the greatest danger. Because the prospect is so frightening, it should be kept fresh as a matter of public concern.

The report used the evidence turned up by the McClellan committee to show how Teamster control of law enforcement is indeed possible as well as to point up the effect this might have on the peace and order of the nation's communities.

Did the police chiefs' report indicate that they have no confidence in the rank-and-file policemen who would be the targets of

Mr. Hoffa's unionizing campaign? Probably not. There are plenty of well-intentioned, honest rank-and-file members of the Teamsters Union who do not subscribe to the methods their president uses or the company he keeps.

The thing to remember is that it is not necessary to have the full and unwavering support of all the members of a huge organization in order to control its conduct and policies. The more ruthless the leadership, the less grass roots support it needs to keep control.

The Teamster boss has demonstrated this very ably. By placing his own men in key positions, he managed to obtain and has managed to retain his power in the face of adverse action by legislative bodies, the courts, the AFL-CIO and the public. The more adversity he faces, the more defiant he seems to become.

What the police chiefs in effect are saying is that, knowing full well how Mr. Hoffa operates and the lengths to which he will go to get what he wants, the public must be alert to every sign that he is attempting to carry out his threat.

And a threat is what it is.

Tough Job For Democratic Hopefuls

Now that the Democrats have come up with a 1,511-delegate list for the national convention in Los Angeles, the work is cut out for each of those who aspire to be the party's standard bearer in the 1960 presidential sweepstakes. The winner must capture 756 votes to take the prize.

The new total compares with 1,372 four years ago when 686½ delegate votes were required to nominate.

To Democratic front-runners John Kennedy, Stuart Symington and Hubert Humphrey, who according to the latest public opinion polls aren't catching on with the voters, the new total must loom as a far-distant goal. Each could go to the convention with 500 pledged delegates and not make the grade. Digging up another 256 supporters could be tough.

Information seeping out of the Democratic National Headquarters is to the effect that the party's leaders are more worried than they admit publicly about their presidential prospects next year.

To the old political pros, the name of Adlai Stevenson is reported to be looking better all the time. The latest Gallup Poll, showing Nixon ahead of Kennedy for the first time, may give new push to the Stevenson boomlet.

Anything For Attention

There's no business like showoff business even in politics.

The staid British learned this hard fact of political life last week when Jayne Mansfield became a campaign issue in the current British general elections.

Clad in a skin-tight scarlet suit, the American actress was on hand to cut the ribbon and open a new clover-leaf intersection on the highway between London and its airport.

The ceremony took place at the same moment that a Conservative party candidate for Parliament, Dudley Smith, was campaigning in a nearby street.

Taking note of the counterattraction, Mr. Smith boomed into the loudspeaker: "A cheap publicity stunt... It's thoroughly irresponsible to turn a fine British achievement into a stunt for a film star who is not even British."

Whether or not Miss Mansfield's performance added lustre to the campaign is a matter of conjecture. Also it is inconceivable that she has the slightest interest in the election. However the stunt did achieve its purpose—which was to attract attention to herself.

SINCE THAT enactment, U.S.

Yeah, How About It?

A Perspective On Red Trade

By Jay G. Hayden

For a U.S.-Russian negotiation comparable to the one just concluded by President Eisenhower and Nikita Khrushchev it is necessary to turn back to 1933, when President Roosevelt and Maxim Litvinov ended the 16-year break in diplomatic relations between their two countries.

The contrast between the initial high hopes aroused by that earlier meeting and its complete failure to achieve any of the purposes stipulated, except for an exchange of ambassadors, warns against expecting too much from the present exchange.

On the overoptimistic side in 1933, for example, both Litvinov for Russia and William C. Bullitt, newly named American ambassador to Russia, prophesied that revived U.S.-Russian trade would set the whole world on the road to economic recovery.

The prophecy was made in November, 1933, with the greatest economic depression in history still going full blast.

IN ACTUALITY, the new U.S. Export-Import Bank, set up with the specific design to loan money to Russia, never even got off the ground because Russia refused to pay the interest, much less anything to reduce the principal, on debts which Litvinov had promised the Soviet would settle.

That obduracy was in spite of the fact that Roosevelt and Litvinov had whittled the Russian obligation, all contracted under the Czars, to a range of 75 million to 150 million dollars.

Litvinov, as related by the then Secretary of State Cordell Hull in his reminiscences, had told Roosevelt privately he thought his government might pay up to 100 million dollars.

But, Hull said: "The following month the situation became further complicated by the enactment of the Johnson Act, which prohibited loans to foreign governments in default of indebtedness to the United States."

When Hull requested an opinion by the attorney general as to whether this act barred any loans to Russia so long as the default on the czarist debt continued, the reply was "yes."

The Johnson Act, in fact, was not aimed at Russia. It arose from the progressive stoppage of interest payments on virtually all of the 11 billion dollars the U.S. loaned to its allies in World War I—chiefly Britain, France and Italy.

This statute, mentioned in official briefings on the Eisenhower-Khrushchev meeting at Camp David as a main obstacle today to restoring trade with Russia, was introduced by Sen. Hiram Johnson (R-Cal) and passed by the Senate, Jan. 11, 1933, without a roll call.

THE DEMOCRATIC floor leader, Sen. Joseph T. Robinson (D-Ark) held off certifying this enactment until he won elimination of some technical provisions offensive to U.S. trade officials. But one price paid for these corrections was an off-the-record pledge by the Roosevelt administration that no credit transaction with Russia would be undertaken pending settlement of all debts owed to the United States, public and private.

Enactment of the Johnson bill in that form, including approval of it by President Roosevelt, Hull said, created an "unbreakable deadlock.... The Soviet was never to make a debt payment and the Export-Import Bank was never to function with regard to Russia....

The Soviet Union was actually in a worse position than other countries. Private corporations and banks of other nations in default could obtain credits in the United States, but all corporations and banks in Russia were government owned."

lend-lease to Russia in World War II has entered the picture. At last report the over-all U.S. claim had been whittled down to 800 million dollars, with Russia offering 300 million.

From the standpoint of trade, which Hull believed was the most hopeful solvent of international difficulties everywhere, a settlement of this debt issue would seem to be the easiest of all means toward U.S.-Russian comity.

The most encouraging features of the U.S.-Russian outlook, of course, are first, the unmistakable friendliness exhibited by both Eisenhower and Khrushchev and, second, the popular enthusiasm among American and Russian people alike, at the news of a seemingly successful ending of the meeting.

Don't Sell Maids Short

By Frank Tripp

Being knee-deep in offspring, it was inevitable that some of mine would be inquisitive about their forebears. Apparently, so was I, for my father gave me the answer that I've passed along.

Every kid sooner or later wants to know who to blame for his existence. It must have been rather late that I delved into the topic, for my dad's wisdom registered and has served me well in the risky business of ancestor research.

Pop was as Yankee as Boston Commons, as independent as Plymouth Rock, as mum and cautious as Cal Coolidge. When he did speak, he was quaintly quotable.

He told me lovely things about his parents, and theirs, but when I quizzed him beyond Concord and Lexington he said "Don't dig back too far boy; you're sure to find a horse thief."

I let it go at that, but a distant cousin dug deep enough to find a blacksheep hung for murder. Strange that the muckrakers didn't find it when cousin Charlie Fairbanks was vice president.

THE PUBLICITY carnival that the press made of the recent Rockefeller wedding must have jogged the skeletons in the Rockefeller closet, and the ghouls itching to rattle them. It evidenced the ruthless disrobing that prominence brings to men who had no choice of their forebears — or their in-laws.

If young Steve Rockefeller had married within his sphere, the wedding wouldn't have moved far beyond the society columns. Instead it rang around the world—because he married a one-time housemaid.

Now a fastidious section of the press is debating the propriety of it. For why puzzle those who know that it will happen again and again, forever. Privacy belongs only to the obscure.

One may charge such inequity to the press ignoring that the public demands it, avidly devours every word of it, and would consign to oblivion any medium that didn't deliver it.

Yet how shallow much of it seems, when analyzed. Anne Marie Rasmussen was only one of countless daughters of good families commendably helping to finance an education or passage to foreign shores. She happened to land a job in the Rockefeller home and one of its heirs fell in love with her. It's as simple as that.

ITS BACKFIRE was its emphasis of caste in a democracy, and did not pass unnoticed. Little was heard of the resentment that tainted many people's well wishers. Because it set them apart in lowly contrast, millions of humble folk did not swallow the Cinderella potion with relish. What is degrading about being a maid, they wondered.

People who deserve and retain for long the loyalty of such as our Anna, respect and treat them as part of the family. Who are the up-from-the-masses Rockefellerers, that they should reject a worthy lass, because she once was their servant?

be the easiest of all means toward U.S.-Russian comity.

The most encouraging features of the U.S.-Russian outlook, of course, are first, the unmistakable friendliness exhibited by both Eisenhower and Khrushchev and, second, the popular enthusiasm among American and Russian people alike, at the news of a seemingly successful ending of the meeting.

That they gracefully received such a one brought them good will that their millions could not buy — who knows, perhaps a presidency.

No one can sell maids short to me. There's a very personal reason. Eighty years ago there was a simple wedding in a little country church. A New England blue-blood descendant, onetime neighbor of the Rockefellers, married a housemaid, but it didn't make the papers.

The fatherless bride exiled from her impoverished Michigan home, wasn't a parlor maid in a mansion. She was a kitchen maid at the county poorhouse.

The Soviets openly admitted that they furnished arms and ammunition that were used by the North Korean armies to fight the United States.

Through The Years

THIRTY YEARS AGO — Plans for the organization of a Republican club were laid at a meeting of the party's central committee. About 5,857 persons, of whom 4,445 announced preferential denominations, enlisted in the Kernahan "visitation campaign" in East Liverpool, Wellsville and Chester.

TWENTY YEARS AGO — Delmar R. Serafy, executive secretary of the Columbiana County Public Health League, was among county representatives who attended a district meeting at Ravenna to discuss the Christmas health seal campaign.

James R. Hall, city safety-service director and owner of the Hall Music store, was elected president of the Kiwanis Club, succeeding Carroll P. Lynch.

TEN YEARS AGO — The Midland Area Community Chest Fund drive was postponed indefinitely because of a strike at the Crucible Steel Co.

Miss Bonny Betts was elected president of Beta Kappa Chapter of Pi Rho Zeta at the Ohio Valley Business College.

Meaningless Words

Red Speeches Lack Background Of Truth

Words, words, words — many thousands of them now have been poured forth by Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev as an assurance to the world of his peaceful intentions. But who will believe them? What has he done to make people trust him?

The French minister of foreign affairs, Maurice Couve de Murville, has just put his finger on the "key word," and that's "trust."

In a speech in New York before the General Assembly of the United Nations, the French statesman has exposed the trickery and duplicity of the disarmament proposal made by Mr. Khrushchev so dramatically before the United Nations.

The French foreign minister says:

"The other day we heard Mr. Khrushchev explain his own position forcefully. The Soviet Union, as I understand it, accepts the idea of controls (on disarmament) but envisages that these will not be set up or at least will not actually function, until after the agreed measures of disarmament have already been implemented."

"We believe on the contrary that one cannot dissociate the actual process of disarmament from the setting up of controls. The latter guarantees the former and the consequently conditions it."

"Moreover, lacking real controls, the vitally necessary trust would be utterly lacking."

"I purposely use the word trust, for it is the key word. The problem of disarmament has certain technical aspects and those are important. But basically it is a political problem."

WHAT ALL this means is that the Soviet government wants a stage-by-stage formula, including a withdrawal of American forces from Europe, a transfer of all atomic weapons from Europe and perhaps their destruction before any control measure are set up to determine whether the Soviet government is complying with the corresponding pledges it will have been asked to make under the disarmament agreement.

Mr. Khrushchev either is naive or purposely feigned innocence as he asked in his TV speech to the American people:

"Have you ever pondered over this question? If we are not planning to fight, whatever do you or we need all these armaments for?"

The truth is nobody knows what the Soviets are really planning because the world has seen them break pledge after pledge.

The Soviets openly admitted that they furnished arms and ammunition that were used by the North Korean armies to fight the United States.

Herter Almost Anonymous

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON For the first time in years this country has a secretary of state who is so self-effacing he is almost anonymous. He works hard but stays in the background.

This retiring quality in Secretary Christian A. Herter may have been an indirect but major factor in what seems to be a change in American foreign policy as seen in the new effort to get along with the Soviets.

Herter, a mild and proper Bostonian, talks when he has to, as he did last spring and summer at Geneva in dealing with the Soviets on Berlin. Otherwise, he has little to say. This is a switch in more ways than one.

Dean Acheson, secretary under President Truman, was a self-assured, imaginative and aggressive man who sometimes even gave the impression of arrogance.

He made a lot of speeches, was continually in hot water with Congress, took a lot of abuse—particularly from Sen. Joseph McCarthy—fought back and yet so managed it that Truman appeared the undoubted boss of foreign policy.

Not so with Herter's immediate predecessor, Secretary John Foster Dulles, who was an aggressive man, too, and stubborn. Dulles seemed less imaginative than Acheson, but was continually in hot water with congressional Democrats.

He made a lot of speeches, too. But he so dominated his job that President Eisenhower looked like a secondary figure in foreign affairs, leaving it up to Dulles to carry the load.

Herter stays so much out of sight that Eisenhower completely dominates in foreign relations. Acheson and Dulles, besides their public speeches, held news conferences regularly. Herter has had only one in Washington since taking office last April 22.

True, he has been out of the country a lot—at Geneva and then in Latin America for formal conferences—but even when he could naturally be hogging the camera, or staying within close range, he didn't.

Try to remember seeing him at all when he was in Europe with Eisenhower a few weeks ago.

Nations forces which were sent to Korea to repel Communist aggression in 1950. Likewise, the Soviet government has instigated revolts in Southeast Asia and in the Middle East and has infiltrated in many countries around the world. Yet Mr. Khrushchev, in his TV address, said that: "The principle of non-interference by countries in each other's domestic affairs should be strictly adhered to."

As far back as 1933, however, the Soviet Union made that very promise when the United States recognized the Moscow government.

Since that time the Communists have repeatedly violated the principle of non-interference in the internal affairs of many countries.

THE RECORD is plain. The question now is whether the Soviet chief can expect by a few speeches to erase the past altogether and to receive trust where no basis for it has even been established.

The Soviet Premier uses pious words but his deeds belie them. Thus he brazenly said in his farewell talk:

"The constitution of our country is in reality a most democratic one. It insures universal, equal and direct elections to legislative bodies with secret ballot. It insures the right to work, to study and to rest."

Actually only one political party is allowed and candidates for public office are handpicked by the dictatorship in Moscow.

THE CONSTITUTION itself is just a smokescreen of high-sounding words to hide the system of compulsion and slavery that is imposed on the people of the Soviet Union.

The citizens either do what the government tells them to do or they go to jail or to exile.

They must accept whatever wages the government pays them and whatever housing the government thinks is adequate.

Mr. Khrushchev describes the Soviet system as "socialism" and calls America's "capitalism." Again, this is also a play on words. In reality, the Soviets have a system of "state capitalism"—as opposed to American "private capitalism" wherein the government confiscates the income produced by the workers and uses the capital as it pleases.

While this is the chief difference on economic lines, the true difference is in the political systems. Its difference between democracy and dictatorship.

Mr. Khrushchev and his henchmen, however, always call everything in the Soviet world "democratic," even when they "purge" dissenters or send them to concentration camps.

The Soviet Premier used the American television and radio and press facilities to continue the fraudulent use of words and phrases for which the Communists have long been notorious. Mutual trust cannot be built on such a basis.

A witness, William L. Sisley of Sherwood Ave., told police the Leslie car passed a panel truck on the right side before crossing the intersection. The operator of the panel truck had stopped for a traffic signal, he said.

An hour earlier, police had been called to E. 2nd St. when a truck owned by the Z. L. Travis Co. of Steubenville knocked down a Pennsylvania Railroad crossing sign.

Officers said they had no information on the accident and did not have the name of the driver. A diagram on the police report showed the sign was torn down just west of the Broadway crossing and indicated the truck partially blocked the westbound tracks.

Brake failure was blamed for an accident Saturday at 4:52 p. m. on Lisbon St. when a 1949 sedan driven by Beverly Jean London, 23, of 944 Railroad St. struck a mailbox at the home of Pauline Dingey, 1020 Lisbon St. The woman told police she attempted to slow but the brakes failed.

The other accident at 7:07 p. m. Saturday at Dresden Ave. and Smith St. involved cars operated by Ross Crabtree, 18, of Industry R. D. 1 and Bruce B. Westfall, 47, of Doylestown.

Crabtree told officers he started through the traffic signal but his motor stalled. He was partially in the intersection, Crabtree said, but the signal had changed by the time he got his car started. When he tried to pull into the

Home's Staff Asks $10 Hike

LISBON — No final decision had been made by Columbiana County Commissioners by noon today on a request by employees of the County Home for a $10-a-month pay increase and shorter hours. R. Max Gard, chairman of the commissioners, said.

The employees had advised the commissioners through an attorney they would walk off their jobs today unless some sort of action was taken on their request—filed last month. The commissioners had indicated they would reply by last Thursday.

The commissioners are scheduled to visit the County Home this afternoon and discussion will be held on the proposed pay hike and reduced work schedule, Gard said. Gard said that since a meeting with Supt. Russell Phillis last week and the "adverse publicity" stemming from the employee's requests, one of the commissioners has changed his mind about an agreement reached with the attorney for the workers.

Atty. Richard Kennedy of Lisbon, acting for the employees, said the workers would accept a $10-a-month wage increase with one day off each week.

Dad Better Know Answers

School Science Study Now In Use

"Dad, what are earthquakes? Why does it rain? Where does the sun go at night?"

"Dad," who used to mumble an answer that generally led to more "What and why" questions, had better exercise a little caution now when he tries to explain to his youngster.

The first complete science program for elementary students in East Liverpool schools has been installed.

NOW THE YOUNGSTERS in the first through sixth grades either will embarrass "Dad" when he gives an incorrect answer or argue the facts if he tries to show off.

The new program was launched two years ago when the Board of Education, acting on the recommendation of a faculty committee, approved new science texts for elementary use.

It is in keeping with a national trend for more stress on science, but it is not designed to make scientists of all students. Rather, it is to help them understand their everyday contacts with nature, Supt. Ralph W. Betts and Asst. Supt. Paul Blair explained.

Because of limited funds, the new text, "Experimenting In Science," was placed in the sixth grade only in 1957. Last year the "Adventuring In Science" books were given fifth graders.

NEW TEXTS were also placed in the first through fourth grades in all elementary buildings except Westgate. The new texts will be purchased for Westgate pupils next year.

Comprehensive reference books to supplement the pupils' texts also have been placed in each building. In addition, the board was able through matching funds made available under the National Defense Act to purchase kits for every elementary grade so the pupils can make simple experiments.

The kits, like the texts, vary according to the grade. The first grade kit includes a miniature greenhouse with wheat, corn and soybeans so the youngsters can observe the growth. There also is an aquarium to see marine life, a test tube, magnifying glass and a small magnet.

THE BOARD also purchased a bioscope which the older elementary pupils can use to show prepared slides or use live material to make their own slides, which can be screened on walls, floors and even ceilings. It also doubles as a microscope.

The texts and experimental kits are to aid the children in the development of six concepts — time, space, change, variety, adaptation and inter-relationships.

Although basically the texts contain the same general material, it is enlarged and explained more fully as the student progresses through school.

In their texts, "Science and You" and "Science Near You," the first graders learn about the sky, rain, soil and rocks. In the second grade text, "Science Around You," the pupils study the various seasons of the year and more material on the air, water, weather and sounds.

THIRD GRADE pupils find an introduction to electricity and magnets in their book, "Science Everywhere." Fourth graders study "Discovering With Science" and the fifth grade text is "Adventuring In Science." In the sixth grade, the book is "Experimenting In Science." The titles are virtually self-explanatory.

Nineteen elementary science laboratories were donated to the schools by Leonard Webber for use in the sixth grades. The laboratories offer the children an opportunity to learn about earth in space, communication by sound and light, weather, magnetism and electricity, living things and machines.

While studying communication, the children can build a simple camera, a phonograph, one-string guitar and telephone. A record comes with the kit and can be played on the phonograph.

IN MACHINES, the pupils can see the meshing of gears and the principle of the pulley. They can use a cloud direction indicator while learning about the weather.

The kits also include material the youngsters can take home when completed along with reports so the parents can see what their children have learned.

To aid the grade school teachers with the program, John W. Bott, a consultant for Ginn & Co., spent last week working in the various schools. He met Monday afternoon with first and second grade teachers, Tuesday with third and fourth grade teachers and Wednesday with fifth and sixth grade instructors.

A meeting with all elementary principals was held Monday morning and the consultant visited all buildings to meet with teachers during the school hours.

If anyone has any doubts as to the relative merits of free and Communist society, he should visit Germany. In the East, a shabby decadence; in the West, a dynamic, prosperous life.

Under a system of human dignity and free enterprise, the creative capacities of man make possible a good life for all. Under Communism, it withers. This is the irrefutable fact observed by the visitor to Germany today.

Ohio Attorney Cleared In Case Of Watches Theft

JAMESTOWN, N. Y. (AP) — Herman S. Pressman, a Cleveland Ohio, attorney, has been cleared of a charge stemming from the 1958 theft of $6,000 worth of antique watches.

Pressman, 51, an attorney for two Cleveland men recently convicted of the theft, was arrested Aug. 27 when a suitcase containing the missing watches turned up in a nearby warehouse. Pressman was in Jamestown that day on business, he told police.

He was cleared of a charge of knowledge of stolen property Saturday in a City Court hearing. Richard R. Stewart, 28, arrested with him, is being held for the grand jury on the charge.

Pressman was counsel for Albert A. Severino, 38, and Charles C. Skubovics, 35. Both were sentenced last week in Chautauqua County Court to 5 to 10 years in Attica State Prison on first-degree grand larceny and third-degree burglary convictions.

They were returned to Ohio State Penitentiary, however, to complete sentences on previous theft charges.

'Corpse' Turns Up In West Virginia

MORGANTOWN (AP) — The Monongalia County grand jury meeting this Thursday will have a bizarre "murder" case to consider. The "corpse" turned up alive over the weekend.

Felix Malenski, 40, walked into the sheriff's office to end all doubt about whether or not he was living. Not long ago it was taken for granted that he wasn't, since one of his brothers-in-law "confessed" to murdering him and was jailed and charged accordingly.

George Spadafore, 24, made the "confession" in August when he was picked up on an old auto theft warrant and questioned about the disappearance of Malenski from Everettville near here, where he, his wife and five children and Spadafores lived.

George said he killed his brother-in-law on July 25, 1958, and disposed of the body with the help of his brother, Frank, 32, by throwing it on a burning slay heap. Frank was jailed, too, and charged as an accessory after the fact.

Fire Causes Damage To Dwelling At Lisbon

LISBON — Fire damaged the interior of the home of Mrs. Hazel Garwood of Pleasant Heights Saturday morning.

Acting Fire Chief Thirl Flugan said the two-story six-room frame was occupied by Mrs. Garwood, her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Reynold, and their 8 children, ranging from 4 months to 16 years.

Clothing and furniture also were destroyed.

Fireman said defective electric wiring may have caused the fire. The Civil Defense tanker truck was used to bring in more water before the blaze was brought under control, Flugan said.

Judge Dismisses Resisting Charges In Township Case

A charge of resisting arrest against a Sub-Station youth was dismissed and he was given a suspended fine for using a faulty muffler on a motorcycle Saturday by Municipal Judge George L. Brokaw.

Constable Clarence Blosser of St. Clair Township, who filed the two charges, asked dismissal of the resisting charge against Donald Marcum, 19.

Marcum was fined $5 and costs by Judge Brokaw for the faulty muffler, but the judge suspended the fine on payment of costs. Blosser cited the youth Thursday afternoon on the Y. & O. Rd. and agreed to accompany him to the garage of the motorcycle owner, where he said a hostile crowd attempted to keep him from following through on the arrest.

Bus Driver Forfeits In Traffic Light Case

A bus driver, whose plea of guilty to crashing a traffic signal was rejected Friday by Municipal Judge George R. Brokaw on the grounds it was an expedient to avoid returning to court, failed to appear Saturday morning and the jurist forfeited his bond.

Willis Drummond of R. D. 2 was cited Thursday night for crashing a traffic signal at E. 5th and Washington Sts. When arraigned Friday morning, he pleaded not guilty but then tried to change his plea after learning he would have to appear Saturday morning. Drummond indicated he didn't want to miss a second day's work. The judge told Drummond: "We'll set the case for Saturday morning and if you can't be here we will continue it to a time when you can be present." He said it wouldn't be good business to accept the guilty plea "as an expedient to avoid returning to court."

130 Attend Meeting Of Poultry Association

LISBON — Over 130 attended the annual meeting of the Northeast Ohio Poultry Association at Columbiana Friday, according to Floyd Lower, county extension agent in agriculture.

C. M. Ferguson, administrator of the Federal Extension Service of the U. S. Department of Agriculture, was guest speaker.

A tour of the plant in the forenoon was followed by a chicken barbecue at noon. Tom Newson, manager of the Association, gave his yearly report at the afternoon meeting, showing the plant handled 5,145-878 pounds of poultry and 3,052,950 dozen eggs with a total of $2,463,351 worth of business during the year.

On Changes, Budget-Balancing

'60 GOP Platform Group Plans Series Of 5 Reports

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP) — Architects of the 1960 GOP platform are going to get thousands of words alerting Republicans to changing times—and the unchanging goal of budget-balancing.

The Republican Committee on Program and Progress, headed by Charles H. Percy of Chicago, seems likely to wind up in a series of five reports by advising the party to be flexible but to stand firmly against paternalistic government and deficit spending.

In two reports released during the weekend, the 40 - member group called on Republicans to be "flexible and imaginative in welcoming change" but to continue to resist "vast new spending programs directed from Washington."

Upcoming are three more reports on "National Security and Peace," "Human Rights and Needs" and "Economic Opportunity and Progress."

All of these peer ahead to 1976, the 200th anniversary of the signing of the Declaration of Independence, in an effort to prepare the GOP for things to come. They will go to the 1960 convention platform committee for its consideration.

Vice President Richard M. Nixon, in a statement praising the report, said it "presents the Republican party as a party of dynamic progress."

"This report brings home the fact that we are conservative because we want progress. We oppose programs which place what we believe to be too much emphasis on federal government action — not because they promise too much but because they would produce too little."

How Much Do You Know About Mortuary Services?

★ PROCEDURES, COSTS?

★ YOUR RESPONSIBILITIES?

There are good reasons why everyone should be familiar with mortuary details and customs.

For one thing, you never know when you might have to act for the family or help friends with a funeral arrangement. For another, you never know what special conditions you might have to face. An accident, or a death far from home — perhaps overseas — frequently poses some knotty problems. Still a third good reason lies in the fact that some pre-knowledge greatly reduces your mental stress in a difficult period—and most important—helps you to guard against overspending.

We have the answers to the problems you'll face, and we've put them all in a handy little pocket-size booklet for you.

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Readers: The mail on superstition continues to pour in. It's too good not to pass on. Here are more.

Dear Ann Landers: My mother told me when I was a small boy never to kill a spider or I would not inherit any money.

One afternoon I was on a picnic with a girl friend and a spider appeared on the supper cloth. "Kill it, Walter!" she said.

I replied, "I wouldn't dare. I won't inherit any money."

She looked at me with astonishment and said, "I didn't know you had any rich relatives! Who are they?"

When I tried to think of one it hit me that nobody in our family had anything to inherit. I killed the spider and since that day I've ignored superstition.—W.H.

Dear Ann: A great aunt used to warn my mother not to brag about her good luck.

"The devil will hear you, and change things," she would say. Such ignorance made me boil—but I watched my own bragging, just the same.

A few years ago I decided it was time to break the voodoo psychological chains. I bragged to a neighbor about my family's wonderful good health.

The children are never sick. I said, "Their school attendance is perfect."

That same night my two boys came down with the mumps and my daughter got the measles. Coincidence? Of course—but I've never bragged about my good luck since.

Lucky Break

Dear Ann: During the war I was engaged to marry a childhood sweetheart.

"Don't ever let a post come between us," she would say. "It's bad luck."

FOR OLD TIRED LINOLEUM

It's so easy to put new wear and life in old linoleum. A bright shining coat of Glaxo is the answer.

A Glaxo floor is glass like in appearance, yet is non slip. It practically cares for itself since it seals out dirt and a swish of the mop is all that's necessary. You don't wax a Glaxo floor. Make the old linoleum do with Glaxo. MILLIGAN'S.

I told her I didn't believe in such witchery.

One night we were walking down the street and I intentionally walked around a post which separated us. I bumped smack into the cutest WAC I ever saw. I knocked off her hat and her precious bottle of scotch broke on the sidewalk.

Of course I had to take her phone number to replace the scotch. Well, Ann, I married the girl—and to this day we always separate when we come to a post.—R.D.F.

No Place To Go

Dear Ann: I knock on wood, avoid black cats, wouldn't think of starting a trip on Friday the 13th, and I shake salt over my left shoulder like crazy.

So—I'm insecure. Who isn't? If it makes me feel that I'm protecting myself against evil spirits by doing these things, why not do them?

Some people go to church for the same reason.—THE ATHEIST.

Dear Atheist: When you leave this world, as you must, one day, instruct the family not to bury you in good clothes. You'd be all dressed up with no place to go.

11 District Men Join Army In Recruiting For September

Eleven area men enlisted in the Army during September. Sgt. Emanuel Bosley, local recruiter, announced today. They are now at Ft. Jackson, S. C., for basic training.

The group included Donald J. Kerr, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Kerr, 2023 St. Clair Ave., who will be in radio and carrier repair; Richard Al Green, son of John V. Green of LaCroft, who selected the field artillery.

Joseph W. Kent, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Kent, 721 Pennsylvania Ave., will be in cryptography, and will also select a technical school under the Army high school program; Richard T. Enochs, nephew of Mrs. Edith Busard of Macrum St., who entered unassigned.

Re-enlisting for three years was Cecil McKinnon, son of Mr. and Mrs. Forrest McKinnon and husband of Mrs. Alma McKinnon, all of 1006 St. Clair Ave. He served four years in the Air Force as

Lucky Bucks

Dear Ann: As you know, show people are probably the most superstitious lot in the world. My father was a Shakespearean actor who worked with John Barrymore. He, unlike most actors, scoffed at superstition.

Anyone who got a $2 bill brought it to him for a pair of singles. When father died he left me a shoe box. In it—4,000 $2 bills.—E.H.J.

Honest Confession

Dear Ann Landers: Do you have perhaps one little tiny superstition? How about it?—COL. R.E.

Dear Colonel: Well—maybe one little one. My mother told me never to sew on a garment when the person is wearing it, without first putting a piece of thread in that person's mouth.

"You'll sew up his brains," she would say with a smile. To this day I simply can't sew while someone is wearing that piece of thread in his mouth.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of The Review, enclosing a stamped, self-address envelope.

Lost School Days Total 8 Annually, Government Says

American children lost an average of 8.4 days from school as a result of illness or injury during the 12 months ending June 30, 1958, according to a report from the U. S. National Health Survey. Acting Director Edgar L. Bryan of the Census Bureau's regional office at Pittsburgh said today.

The Census Bureau conducts the field work for the household interview part of the health survey for the U. S. Public Health Service. National Health Survey information is collected from a representative group of area families several times a year by Mrs. Hazel S. Miller of Toronto. The information is combined with data collected in 500 other areas of the country to provide national statistics.

City children lost 9 days from school, on the average, as a result of illness or injury during the period covered by the survey. Rural non-farm children lost 7.8 days during this period and farm children lost 7.3 days. However, farm children 15 to 16 lost about 10 days from school as compared to 6.5 days lost by urban children of these ages.

Illness or injury resulted in a total of 291.5 million school-loss days during the year covered in the survey. A school-loss day is defined in the survey as being a day when a child would have been going to school but instead missed the whole of the school day because of an illness or injury.

"My fellow Americans:

"There are many things about our nation which excite a sense of pride...but one quality of America stands out... this is the quick response of our citizens to their neighbors in need...."

We read and hear about them and we are moved to sympathy and help. But most of the human crises which occur each day never reach the headlines.... Somebody must keep an eye on them and show us the way to help.... This is the purpose of the united community campaigns....

"...I am confident that our hands and hearts will be ready to welcome the volunteer worker who will soon call on us seeking our pledge of support...."

From the President's message for the United Community Campaigns of America, September 26, 1958.

4 Ohio Cities Seek 6 1/2 Million Chances Seen Fairly Good For Slum Clearance Funds

By JAMES B. SIBBISON

WASHINGTON (AP)—The government will decide in a few months whether to give about 6 1/2 million dollars to four Ohio cities for slum clearance. The chances for approval are regarded as fairly good.

The funds—requested by Middletown, Akron, Columbus and Toledo—would be made available under the new housing law signed after two vetoes, by President Eisenhower.

That isn't all Ohio will get from this law, either. There is more than 10 million dollars in it for low cost loans to Ohio colleges for student housing—providing they are all approved.

A spokesman for the Housing and Home Finance Agency said today the Ohio cities which have asked for the slum clearance money will know by the end of December whether they can have it.

The money itself is available. The question is whether the agency agrees that the cities need as much as they have applied for or if they need it at all.

Even where the money is approved it sometimes is a matter of two or three years planning and building the slum clearance project before it is all given and spent.

Here are the slum clearance grants requested by the Ohio cities, with the names of the projects:

MIDDLETOWN — Garfield Project, $899,703; AKRON — Industrial State, $1,520,000; COLUMBUS — Children's Hospital, $2,143,710;

U.S. Supreme Court Opens New Session

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Supreme Court reassembles today to open a new term that is certain to produce important decisions in the civil rights field.

Two pilot appeals directly affecting enforcement of the 1957 Civil Rights Act are among the more than 800 cases already entered on the court's unusually heavy docket.

Heading the civil rights cases is a Justice Department appeal from a decision by a federal judge in Georgia that a section of the 1957 act is unconstitutional. He said it is invalid because it gave the attorney general authority to seek injunctions not only against state officials but against private citizens as well.

The Supreme Court will hear arguments on this appeal later in the fall. It is expected to announce soon whether it will hear arguments on another Justice Department appeal, this one from a decision by a federal judge in Alabama that the act did not empower the attorney general to sue a state.

New appeals involving other racial issues ask review of lower court decisions that (1) resulted in closing Prince Edward County, Va., public schools; (2) barred the Norfolk, Va., City Council from shutting off funds for secondary schools; (3) required Negroes seeking to enter North Carolina white schools to use all state procedures before complaining to federal courts; (4) held there was no discrimination involved in the dropping of Negro teachers when Moberly, Mo., put into effect a school integration plan; (5) ruled a Negro on an interstate bus trip could be fined $10 for refusing to leave a restaurant for whites in a Richmond interstate bus terminal.

The Supreme Court already has granted a hearing on an appeal by five Negro golfers convicted of trespassing on a course in Greensboro, N.C.

It also will hear an appeal by the National Assn. for the Advancement of Colored People in a case from Little Rock, Ark. The NAACP challenged validity of an ordinance requiring it to give the city lists of members and contributors.

Husband Fined For Striking Man Who Stared At His Wife

An area man was found guilty of assault Saturday following a lengthy hearing in Municipal Court in which he accused the complaining witness of eyeing his wife for nearly two years.

Paul Barrett of the Y. & O. Rd. was fined $25 and costs by Judge George L. Brokaw on the charge filed by Douglas Williams, 1173 Erie St., who alleged Barrett struck him Sept. 23 on Broadway. Judge Brokaw suspended $10 of the fine.

During the hearing, Mrs. Barrett testified she has "lived in a state of fear" for two years because Williams always was "staring and glaring" at her. She said it started two years ago when she was co-owner of a beauty shop on Mulberry St. and observed Williams watching her frequently.

On the day of the fight, she said Williams crossed in front of her car on E. 5th St. and was staring at her. Although she had never spoken to him before, Mrs. Barrett said she asked, "Is something bothering you?" and said Williams replied: "Yes."

She said her husband then told Williams to keep his eyes off his wife but the East End man said: "I'll look at what I want to look at."

The couple later parked on Broadway and her husband walked up to Barrett, she said. She couldn't hear what was said, but testified Williams picked up the lid of a nearby garbage can and swung it at her husband, who ducked and then hit Williams. She said she asked her husband to stop "because I was afraid for him."

Mrs. Clara Means, 1030 Railroad St., Mrs. Barrett's former partner, testified Williams drove back and forth in front of the shop and always looked in. She said he stopped one time, got out of his car and looked in the window.

Patrolman W. A. Devon said Mrs. Barrett told him a couple of times when he was off-duty about Williams' following her and said she asked him to obtain the license number of a car.

Williams testified he had never seen Mrs. Barrett.

Atty. John B. McDonald represented the Barretts, with Asst. Solicitor Richard Clark representing the city.

Encourage Children's Questions

Your child, from about two to five, may be an endless questioner. He will be if you never show vexation when he asks questions and if you try to answer all of them as kindly and as accurately as you are able. There's no better way to enjoy his companionship, encourage him at speech and and keep a- By Garry Meyers live and stimulate his curiosity. About the only way he can get information concerning the thousands of things he wants to know is to have somebody answer his questions. The more questions he asks now, and has answered, the more questions he will try to answer for himself when he can read. Indeed, as you answer your tot's questions, you are helping him to get ready to read—and to read for meaning.

NO MATTER how smart you are, you hardly could answer all the questions a youngster under six may ask. Just do the best you can. Always be ready to say, "I don't know."

When one of our youngsters was about four, I must have been saying pretty often, "I don't know," for one day he said, "Daddy, you don't seem to know anything. Later when I had to say, "I don't know," I tried, when I could, to find the answer by telephoning someone who knew or searching in books.

Wholesome is the parent-child relationship when a youngster sees or hears the parent searching for the answer to a question of his. He feels that he and what he wants to know are worthwhile.

Of course there are many times when it's not practical, even possible, to search immediately for the answer. At such times one might well make a written or mental note of the question and find the answer later.

ALSO THERE may be times when, after answering many questions or when encumbered with other matters, one might be justified in saying calmly, "I just can't answer more of your questions now."

But this should not happen too often. The child should feel assured he can come back to you later with a battery of questions. Please don't tell him he wears you out with his questions and never act as if you are annoyed by his interrogations.

However, you may find your tot asking a second question before you have finished answering the first. You may easily discern that his chief motive is to keep you busy rather than to get information. In such an instance, it might be well to ask him what your answer to the last question was before he asks another.

If you have answered your child's questions kindly, they will include some about the facts of life. There you should also answer as well as you are able.

My bulletins, "Letting Baby and Tot Learn" and "Answering Child's Questions About Sex," may be had by sending a self-addressed, stamped envelope to me in care of this newspaper.

Strike Ends At Chrysler's Giant Plant

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—The 3,500 workers at Chrysler Corp.'s giant stamping plant in nearby Twinsburg have ended their strike. A company official, however, says it will be two days before assembly and manufacturing operations on 1960 models can be resumed in other plants affected by the five-day shutdown.

Agreement by the company and leaders of United Auto Workers Local 122 was ratified in a membership meeting Sunday. The vote was 506-201.

The first workers started back Sunday night at the plant which produces auto bodies and is a key operation in Chrysler's production setup. Laid off as a result of the strike were 14,000 other company employees in the Detroit area and 3,500 in Indiana. Had the strike lasted another few days, the company would have laid off 45,000 in seven states.

The strike, authorized by the international union, started last Tuesday. It followed two wildcat walkouts last month, the first on Sept. 2 over claims of poor safety operations within the plant.

As a result of the wildcat strikes, the company fired 13 employees, including the local union president. Twelve were reinstated under the agreement, but will have to serve out suspensions ranging from 60 days to six months. Nick Kosovich, head of the local, was given a 60-day suspension. All the suspensions are retroactive to Sept. 2.

The case of the 13th man, accused of falsifying his employment records, will be sent to arbitration.

The union won several company concessions relating to safety grievances. Patrick J. O'Malley, UAW regional director, said the company agreed to erect catwalks around the plant conveyors.

Also promised were 10 extra water fountains, installation of additional coffee and beverage vending machines, one more time clock and an extra plant entrance.

O'Malley said dangerous congestion had developed at key spots in the plant from lack of those facilities.

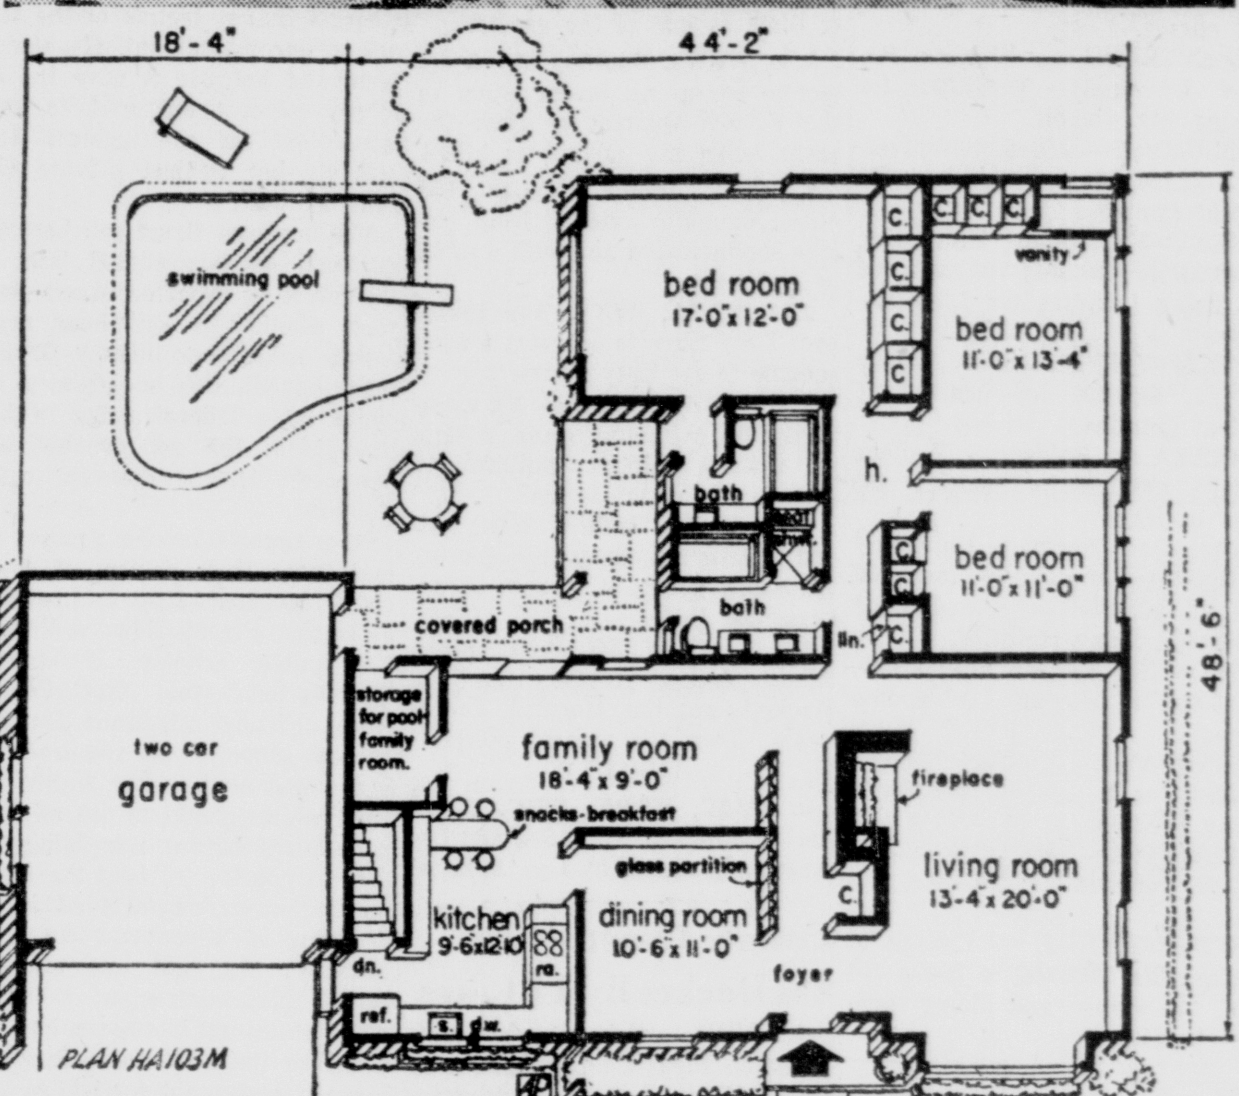

Plant employees walked out 18 times since the giant stamping facility opened two years ago. Only the last strike was authorized by union officials.

Motorists Must Halt At Site Of Old Fort

CHICAGO (AP)—Old Ft. Dearborn, founded in 1803, exists no more, but thousands of motorists each year are forced to halt at the location.

The site of the fort now is the south approach to the busy double-deck Michigan Ave. bridge over the Chicago River. Motorists pause at the fort site every time the huge bridge opens for Great Lakes cargo ships.

Keep In Trim

By IDA JEAN KAIN

Diet-Dabbling Won't Solve Weight Problem

"If I can get down to shapely weight, anybody can." Thus began a letter from a young mother who feels she has many strikes against her on the reducing score. Married ten years, she has four children and not enough money for reducing salons or an expensive exercise machine. Since she has a s to cook for a hungry brood, temptation is constantly there.

Her model is 5 feet 7 tall, weighs 174 pounds and yearns to weigh 145 to 150 pounds. . . and stay there. She writes, "It's not will power that I lack, because when I join with my chubby friends or relatives, I always lose the most weight. But I'm a diet-dabbler. I get enthused, lose ten pounds — then, alas, the pounds sneak back on."

"THIS GETS ME nowhere. Let me be a silent partner and tune in with other dieters. Perhaps this will give me the staying power I need. Keep inspiring us with your morale-boosting words."

All diet dabblers, tune in. First, stretch your mind to a new dimension. Analyze what your aim really is. It's not to lose a fast 10 pounds or 20, but to lick your weight problem. Think in terms of a new way of life that can set you free of weight worries.

Get your thinking straight. You don't want to merely lose weight. You want to look and feel the way you did 20 to 30 pounds ago—vital and buoyantly well.

This young mother's idea of tuning in and being a silent partner with other overweights is sound in principle. When you are working together toward a common goal your will is reinforced by the will of all the other determined dieters. In a way this amounts to a compounding of interest. Dieters find this feeling of alliance to be unexpectedly morale building.

The system: Eat three balanced, low calorie meals a day and eat them at regular hours — no more haphazard eating. This helps to fix the eating pattern that will not only enable you to reduce, but will help you to live healthfully slim ever after. In short, you are now aiming to establish the food habits that will automatically control your weight.

Be alert to the dieter's zero hour — late afternoon. Then is the strategic time to have an energy pick-up, not to exceed 100 calories. This "lift" saves the diet day.

Here's a protective pattern by which you can eat to beat the pounds, a diet with between 1,000 to 1,230 calories:

Meat: lean meat, non-fat fish or fowl, 4-6 ounces, cooked weight. Strictly lean meat has about 225 calories for four ounces, 335 calories for six ounces. Lean - and - marbled meat (trimmable fat removed) has 275 calories for four ounces, 415 calories for six ounces.

If meat is limited to four ounces, a half cup of cottage cheese can be added.

Eggs: 1 or 2 (not fried)

Milk: Skim milk or buttermilk, 1 pint, or liquidified non-fat dry milk.

VEGETABLES: Salad greens — liberal serving. Green leafy or yellow — 3/4 cup. Other vegetables — 1/2 cup.

Fruits: Citrus fruit or juice. Second fresh fruit.

Bread: 3 thin slices. Choice: Cereal, a medium potato or other starchy vegetable may be substituted for 2 thin slices bread. (100 cal.)

Fats: Butter or margarine: 2 half pats. French dressing, 1 tablespoon.

Lorain Man Shot, Killed Following Chase By Officer

ELYRIA, Ohio (AP)—A Lorain man was shot and killed early today following a chase by an Avon policeman. The victim, identified as Martin Salgado, 35, was pronounced dead at Elyria Memorial Hospital.

The chase started on Ohio 254 near the intersection of Ohio 76 and ended after Salgado lost control of his car and crashed into a barbershop near the intersection of Ohio 75 and 254.

Sheriff's deputies said Patrolman Robert Weiland fired four shots from his .38-caliber service revolver at Salgado as he tried to escape on foot. Salgado was hit once in the right side, the bullet passing through his body and lodging in his left arm.

Monico G. Reyes, of Lorain, later was found in the wreckage of Salgado's car and treated for cuts and bruises at the hospital here.

Patrolman Weiland said he saw Salgado going at high speed and gave chase. "He was all over the road, first one side and then the other," Weiland said.

Strike Called 'Most Costly'

CLEVELAND (AP)—The Magazine Steel today termed the steel strike the most expensive in the industry's history.

"Direct losses have mounted to $4,343,200,000," Steel reported in the current issue. "Add the indirect losses and the total could easily reach $6.5 billion."

The weekly trade publication estimated lost steelworkers' wages at $853,200,000 lost sales at $2,478,000,000 and other losses — including overhead, depreciation and salaries of nonproductive workers—at $472,000,000. Also included in the direct losses was an estimate of 540 million dollars in tax losses to the federal government.

Indirect effects have been felt mostly in coal mining and transportation industries, with an estimated 175,000 laid off, Steel said.

"Ironically," said Steel, "that total among fabricators will swell even more when all the steelworkers are back on the job. The overwhelming majority of metalworking's 70,000 plants didn't have to curtail operations through Sept. 30 but more and more will have to now."

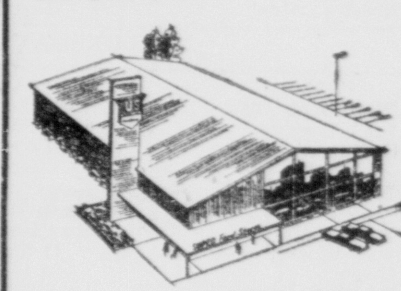

Shipping Figure Dies

CLEVELAND (AP) — William Collins, 90, a former partner in the M. A. Hanna Co., died Sunday at his home in Cleveland Heights. For many years he was manager here of the company's giant Ore and Lake Coal Division and was known as the dean of coal shippers on the Great Lakes. He retired from active service 12 years ago, but continued to go to his office every working day until six months ago. Funeral services will be held Tuesday afternoon at the Collins residence.

Ohio 5-Day Forecast

Temperatures will average 3 to 6 degrees above normal. Normal maximum 67 north to 70 south. Normal low 47-48. Turning cooler Tuesday and continuing cool through Friday; warmer Saturday. Rainfall will average about one-half to one inch in occasional rain or showers tonight and Tuesday and again about Wednesday or Thursday and Saturday.

Utility Rooms Seen Matter Of Planning

PORTLAND, Ore. — Some women yearn for furs; some women want an exotic home with push-button service; but any woman who has ever had to make her kitchen double as a laundry room longs for a separate utility room.

To be fully efficient, a laundry room doesn't need to be giant-sized. In fact, a very handy utility area can be fitted into a space of almost closet-like proportions. It just takes a little careful designing.

In an alcove about five feet wide and eight feet long, for instance, a combination washer-dryer will fit nicely and there will be plenty of space left over for storage built-ins and even for the ironing board and sewing machine.

How? The best plan is to set the washer and dryer side by side on one wall and close the door.

Above them, cabinets can be built to hold soaps, bleaches and cleaning agents for general household chores. The other wall can be designed as a full wall of built-in cabinetry. The cupboards will be shallow, but wonderfully useful, nevertheless. One can serve as a hamper for unironed clothing, for instance.

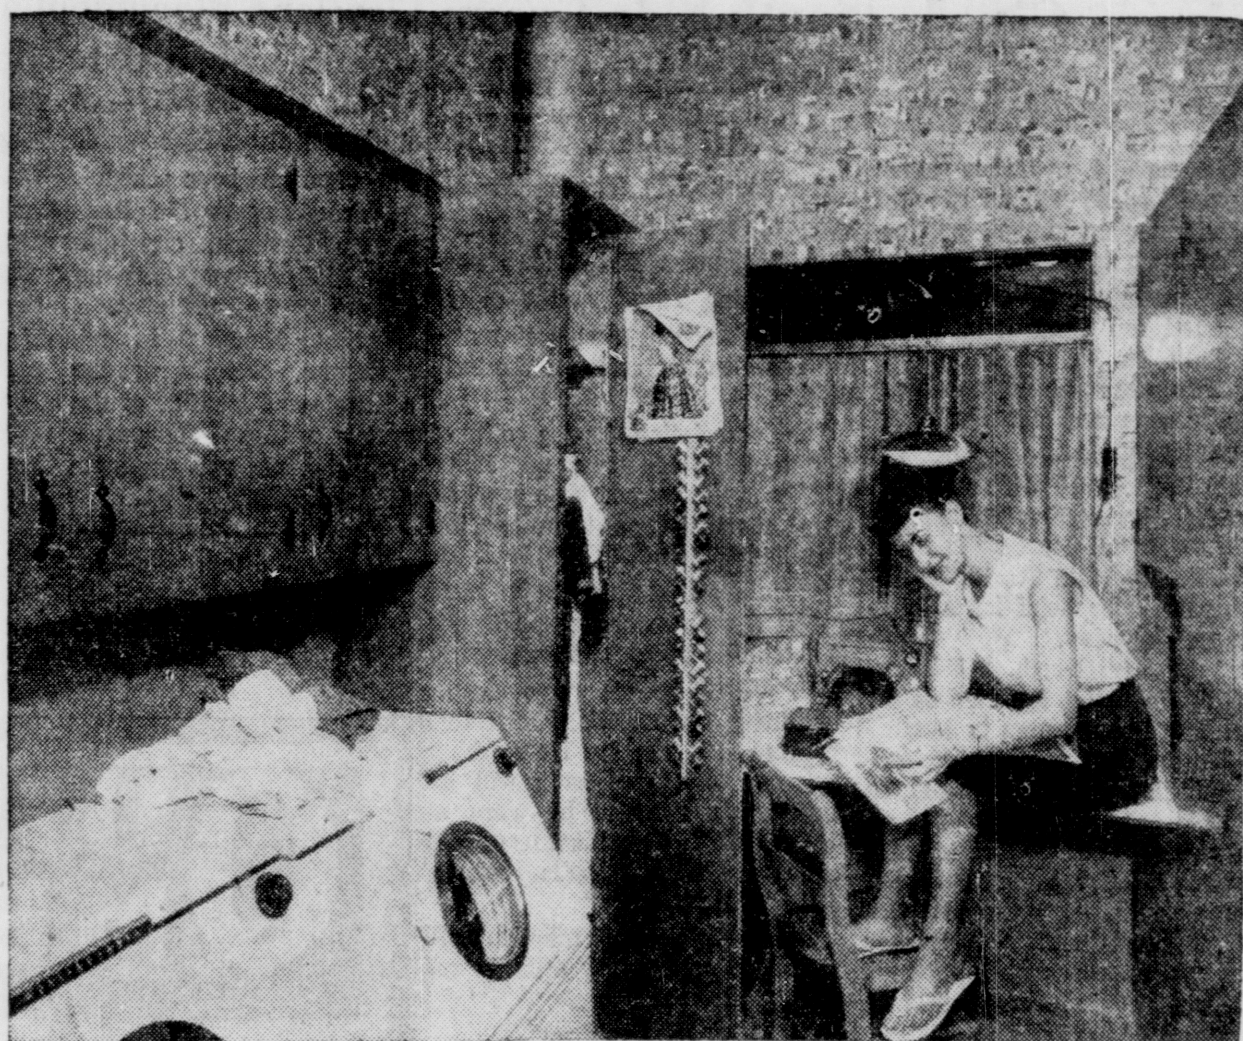

And sewing equipment can be kept here. The door of one cabinet can be designed to pull down and form a work table where towels and sheets can be folded fresh from the dryer.

To insure long life and maximum durability, the cabinets should be tailored of a tough wood like Douglas fir.

Door fronts can be of edge-glued pieces of fir and finished clear to let the wood's elegant golden beige coloring warm this work area and add a note of luxury. Or, if gay color is preferred, Douglas fir takes a paint finish very well.

At the far end of the room, a small counter can be built to hold the sewing machine.

And a narrow closet built at the far end of the washer-dryer unit will house freshly-ironed garments awaiting transportation upstairs. Even though tiny, this closet will prove a boon to foot-weary homemakers, saving them many steps between ironing board and bedroom.

It doesn't take a lot of space to sandwich a functional, attractive utility room into your house plans, but it does take a little planning.

Strike By Clerks Averted In Food Stores Pact Okay

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—A strike scheduled for today by Local 698, Retail Clerks Union was averted with acceptance by union negotiators of a contract offer from the Acme and Century food stores.

About 1,000 union-represented workers employed by the two food chains in Summit, Portage, Stark and Wayne counties meet today to vote on ratification of the proposed contract.

Fred I. Albrecht of Acme, chief management negotiator, said union negotiators Sunday accepted an offer that would include a pay raise of 12½ cents an hour, effective today, with an additional 10 cents an hour on Oct. 5, 1960. Present pay scales were not announced.

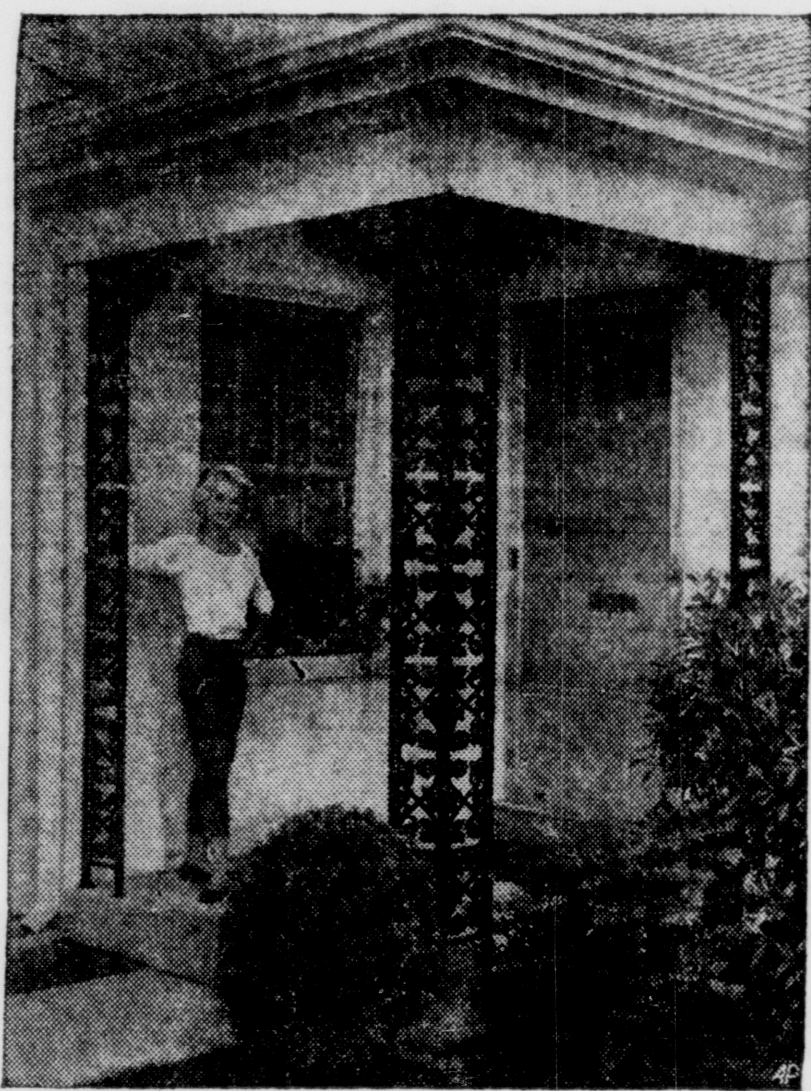

Also included in the offer is a pension program, estimated by management to cost 2½ cents an hour per employee, which would go into effect next year.

Contracts between the union and Atlantic & Pacific Tea Co., Kroger and Co-op food chains are yet to be settled. The contracts have expired, but no strike vote has been taken and Albrecht said he expected work to continue while contracts are negotiated.

Vote To End Strike

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—Members of Local 9, United Workers Union voted Sunday to end their wildcat strike at the General Tire & Rubber Co. here and report back to their jobs starting at midnight Sunday. The walkout started last Monday following a dispute in the passenger tire division over rates on a new machine. It spread to the truck tire division when the company suspended 100 workers and before the week was over some 2,000 employees were idled. The cases of the suspended workers will be discussed at a meeting of company and union representatives today.

Now's Time For Facing Realities At Your Home

PERK UP THAT HOUSE. Ornamental iron ware is now available in standardized sizes.

By VIVIAN BROWN
AP Newsfeatures Writer

Fall is the time to face realities about your home, if boredom has set in. The man of the house should have given up the idea of buying a barn and turning it into a ranch house, and the cooperative lady of the house should have revised her ideas about turning a ranch house into a barn.

Summer in its bucolic loveliness does strange things to the sanest homemakers.

Instead of seeking the rainbow in rural pastoral scenes, it's a good time to improve that place where you hang your Home Sweet Home sign, a place that was probably chosen for practical reasons, with or without woods, fields, lawns or groves.

A house may be refurbished in many ways to add zest to a dwelling.

A new entrance can liven up a dreary or badly planned spot. An unusual window can change a facade from a leering pumpkin face of windows to an enchanted cottage approach.

Ornamental iron, one of the traditional marks of luxurious homes in the South is now available in standardized sizes with all the beauty of the costly made-to-order ironwork from old plantations. These may be installed easily by the home handyman because designs come in complete ensembles with column, bracket, valance and railing ornament. The ensemble gives a custom finish look to the house.

Small entranceways can be enhanced by corner columns. A carport is an ideal place to put iron. Patios and terraces also may be improved by it.

Cast iron and wrought iron columns are available in curved patterns, curly oak design, the popular grape or fleur de lis patterns. There are other patterns — primrose, scroll and leaf, medallion, double heart, half moon.

The columns are adjustable in height ranging from 6 feet 9 inches to 8 feet. Railings are easily assembled from 6 and 10 foot lengths.

This is a good time, too, for plantings of grass seed and bulbs, for transplanting trees and for general landscaping. Indoors there perhaps is weather stripping and puttingty to be done, and other tasks to improve the old homestead — painting, papering and rejuvenation of furnishings.

To Keep Store Open

CINCINNATI (AP)—State liquor officials have decided to keep at least one state liquor store here open until 11 p.m. to accommodate late purchasers. That was the report Sunday after teams of city police and state liquor agents arrested 27 persons they said illegally brought Kentucky-bought liquor into Ohio. Officials said all those arrested had made minor purchases.

To Seek Stay Of Injunction

Secretary Of State Plans Plea On Met Amendment

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — An immediate appeal is planned by the secretary of state on a permanent injunction which rules the proposed metropolitan federation constitutional amendment off the Nov. 3 ballot.

A stay of the injunction will be sought in the Ohio Supreme Court, Secretary of State Ted W. Brown said Saturday. This would permit advertising of the text of the amendment in all 88 counties while the law-suit is pending in court.

The proposal would permit municipalities to form federations to perform certain vital community services jointly.

Without the advertising, Brown said, the proposal would be invalidated even though the high court ruled in its favor.

Ohio law requires advertisement each week for five consecutive weeks in the newspapers of general circulation. The first advertisements have been published.

The Tenth District Court of Appeals issued the injunction Saturday. In its action, failure to follow constitutional procedures during the recent General Assembly was cited.

The decision, written by Judge William C. Bryant:

"We therefore find and determine that the permanent injunction (against appearance of the amendment on next month's ballot) as prayed for should be allowed and the order of the (Franklin County Common Pleas) court below will be reinstated and the order heretofore made by this court staying the injunction of the court below will be set aside."

The secretary of state had ordered, pending the appellate court decision, that the amendment be placed on the ballot. He said that if the appellate court ruled the amendment was not properly before the voters, the vote on it simply would not be counted on election night.

Paul Wichterman, a Franklin County taxpayer, brought the action against the appearance of the amendment on the ballot.

Earlier Saturday it was announced by the chairman of the Ohio Committee for the Metropolitan Amendment that three legislative leaders would head an educational campaign to inform the voters.

Chairman James E. Fain, editor of the Dayton Daily News, said Sen. Frank W. King (D-Lucas), Senate majority leader; House Speaker James A. Lantz (D-Fairfield) and Rep. Roger Cloud (R-Logan) had accepted posts as vice chairmen for the campaign.

A similar metropolitan proposal was defeated last year but sponsors blamed the presence on the same ballot of the ill-fated "right-to-work" amendment.

To Begin Sentence

BATAVIA, Ohio (AP)—John P. Friend Jr., Clermont County treasurer for nearly 22 years, is slated to be transferred to Ohio Penitentiary today to begin a sentence for embezzlement. A Common Pleas court jury convicted Friend of embezzling $50,951, and he later pleaded guilty to indictments charging he embezzled $808 and loaned county money illegally. He was sentenced to one 1-10 year term and two 1-21 year terms, to run concurrently, and fined $2,217.

If it were not for the water vapor of the atmosphere and for the clouds, the temperature of the earth would be at least 50 degrees higher than it is.

Braves Seek Manager As Haney Quits

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The Milwaukee Braves are seeking a name manager to succeed Fred Haney who resigned Sunday night after leading the club to two pennants and two second-place finishes in four years.

Lou Perini, who disclosed that Haney, 61, had been offered a one-year contract but had turned it down, said he had no idea who will handle the club in 1960.

He added, however, that the new manager will be a man with experience, reputation and a known ability to handle men.

This was interpreted in some quarters that Perini felt his club needed a leader with strong will and an iron hand.

"We will start from the top and work our way down," he said. "But we won't go down too far."

Perini left open the possibility that the job may go to Birdie Tebbets, the club's executive vice president, if the Braves couldn't find their man.

Tebbetts, who managed the Cincinnati Reds before turning to the executive end of the game, said however, he was not a candidate for the job.

The list of candidates was headed, of course, by Leo Durocher, who managed both the Dodgers and Giants to National League pennants, and Red Schoendienst, veteran Braves second baseman who was sidelined most of the year because of tuberculosis.

Others high on the list include Freddie Hutchinson, manager of the Reds; Eddie Stanky, now in an official capacity with the St. Louis Cardinals; Bobby Bragan, manager of the Spokane club, and former big league manager Lou Boudreau, now in the radio field, and Bob Scheffing, recently ousted as Chicago Cubs manager.

"I would think that Durocher would possibly fit the description of the type of manager we will be looking for," a Milwaukee official said. "But right now we have no one in mind. We only know that he must be a highly capable, experienced and strong type of manager. It is no secret that our club is not the easiest to handle."

Haney, who said he resigned "in order to be fair to myself and my family with whom I've not spent much time," said he had no immediate plans.

"No," he said, "I'm not interested in another job. You don't give up a $40,000-a-year job to go looking for another one. Right now, I have nothing in mind except to take a vacation with Mrs. Haney."

Haney took over as Milwaukee manager in mid-June of 1956, succeeding Charlie Grimm while the team was on a losing streak. The club promptly won 11 in a row but lost the pennant on the final weekend of the season to the Dodgers.

Haney won the pennant in 1957 and beat the New York Yankees in seven games in the World Series. He won the pennant again in 1958 but lost to the Yankees in seven games after winning three of the first four games. This year the Braves dangled much of the season, catching up in the last two weeks but finally losing when the Dodgers beat them two straight in a best-of-three playoff.

United Posts First Victory Of '59 Season

GREENFORD — United's Golden Eagles owned their first victory of the 1959 football season after scoring an 18-6 win over Greenford here Saturday.

United, which lost its first two starts, combined a passing and running attack to score twice through the air and once on the ground.

A 5-yard pass play from Jerry Marks to Lester Blanchard netted United its first touchdown in the opening period.

Again Marks tossed, this time to Frank Shagnot good for 5 yards and a TD in the second quarter.

United's final touchdown came on a 30-yard sprint by Blanchard. Greenford's Merlyn Bush raced 62 yards for his team's only touchdown.

Dodgers Take Game Edge After 3-1 Victory

By ED WILKS

Associated Press Sports Writer
LOS ANGELES (AP)—Chicago's go-go White Sox, still running, but running second, turned back to old guy Early Wynn for today's fourth World Series game against the Los Angeles Dodgers, who have a 2-1 edge.

The Dodgers, now 2-1 favorites to win the world championship after taking Sunday's game 3-1 before a series record crowd of 92,294, are favored at 6-5 for the fourth game behind Roger Craig, the right-hander Wynn beat 11-0 in the opener at Chicago.

Wynn, who had to leave in the eighth inning of that game when his elbow stiffened, is one of the toughest clutch pitchers in the business. He's the right-hander even New York Yankee manager Casey Stengel "would have to pitch if I wanted to win one game."

And that's what the Sox need after blowing chances in every inning Sunday against winner Don Drysdale and reliever Larry Sherry, who put away his second straight series save.

Only two clubs — the 1925 Pittsburghs against Washington, and last year's Yankees against Milwaukee — ever have become world champions after losing three of the first four in a seven-game series. That's the task the Sox would face with another loss today.

"I still think we gotta helluva chance," said manager Al Lopez.

"We've been doing things the hard way all year on this club, and we might as well end it that way."

Lopez shrugged when asked whether he still intends to try going in this park. Balls hit off the nearby left field screen plunge frighteningly fast into the fielder's glove. The White Sox, warned that the Dodgers throw out quite a few runners at second here, didn't try for doubles on shots to the screen.

"We didn't run any different Sunday than we always do," said Lopez, whose Sox have stolen just one base in four tries against Dodger catcher John Roseboro. That lone steal came in Sunday's first inning. Jim Landis slid into second without drawing a throw from Roseboro, who was watching Nellie Fox, the runner at third.

The Dodgers are 3-3 in steal attempts against Chicago catcher Sherm Lollar, but didn't try any Sunday.

"That Roseboro's okay," said Lopez, "but we got some catchers who can throw in our league, too."

Dodger manager Walt Alston, who before the series compared Roseboro potentially with ex-great Roy Campanella, said "We never had worries about his arm. It was his work as a catcher and hitter that worried us when he had to step in for Campy."

There was no base-running gimmick involved in Sunday's decisive seventh inning. Blanked on one hit for six, the Dodgers got rid of loser Dick Donovan on Charlie Neal's single and a pair of two-out walks that loaded the bases. Then they broke the shut-out on Carl Furillo's pinch single, off reliever Sherry Staley, that bounced ever shortstop Luis Aparicio's glove.

The Sox, who waited 40 years to get into a World Series, had a dozen hits — all singles, at least one in every inning — and left 11 men on base. Los Angeles had only five hits, putting only one off the screen while the Sox plunked five into it.

The first series game ever played on the West Coast rang up a record $549,071 in receipts at the Coliseum.

The old one-game attendance record was 86,288, at Cleveland in the Indians' 1948 series against Boston's Braves. The single-game receipts record was $480,085.64 when the New York Giants, who swept the series, were at Cleveland in 1954.

Third game totals upped the money in the players' pool to $611,096.86. While the players knocked the Coliseum as a ballpark, it takes no rap as a concrete cash box.

By matching today's take, $280,026.67, this will be the jolliest player pool and the richest series from any angle. The pool now shimmers at $611,096.86. The record, set in 1954's four-game series, is $831,732.

Browns Roll Over Cards In 34-7 Win

CHICAGO (AP) — Thanks once more to the brilliant running of fullback Jim Brown, the Cleveland Browns (1-1) are tied today with the other five teams for first place in the Eastern Division of the National Football League.

Brown scored twice and carried the pigskin 37 times in Cleveland's 34-7 triumph over the Chicago Cardinals at a muddy Soldier Field Sunday.

"I don't like to run in that kind of footing, but I didn't get tired," said the great fullback who picked up 147 yards. "It was all power running. You couldn't cut or maneuver."

Milt Plum, operating beautifully at quarterback, tossed touchdown passes to Ray Renfro and Billy Howton and connected on 11 of 14 aeriels for 139 yards. Brown accounted for all but 13 of Cleveland's 160 yards on the ground.

Despite the miserable conditions, Cleveland didn't fumble or have a pass intercepted.

Six fumbles and an intercepted pass hurt the Cardinals' offense.

Chicago relies on razzle-dazzle ball handling and wide sweeps, but the muddy field and driving rain ruined those plans.

The Browns took the opening kickoff and marched 80 yards in 14 plays for a touchdown, with Staley p 0 0 0 0 0 0 Brown going over from the two-yard line. Brown then pounded over from the one to cap a 65-yard drive which gave Cleveland a 14-0 lead early in the second period.

The Browns recovered a Card fumble on the 11 and Plum hit Renfro in the end zone with a five-yard pass to make it 21-0 before halftime.

On the second play after third quarter kickoff, Bobby Joe Conrad fumbled and Junior Wren picked up the ball and raced 44 yards into the end zone. Lou Groza booted four conversions after those touchdowns, but missed his final try when the ball hit the crossbar.

Chicago finally drove for a touchdown in the third quarter, marching 77 yards. Quarterback King Hill sneaked over from the one.

The Browns' final touchdown came on a 36-yard pass play from Plum to Howton in the dying moments of the game.

Tonic, Allen Played Key Roles Saturday

Ex-Midland Star Sets New Passing Mark In Pitt Win

By BOB DUFFY

A pair of quarterbacks who grew up on the district gridirons were key figures in two of the top college games in the nation Saturday.

They are still talking about the sensational performance turned in by Midland's Ivan Tonic, who tossed four touchdown passes in leading Pitt in a great come-from-behind 25-21 victory over UCLA Saturday at Pittsburgh.

Some 500 miles away from Pittsburgh at Lafayette, Ind., East Liverpool's Bernie Allen played an important part in Purdue's surprising 28-7 win over Notre Dame. Tonic had his day of days and the weary gridders who could hardly stand up toward the end of the game collapsed in the dressing room after the contest.

Tonic, who learned his high school football under coach John Petchel at Midland, threw three of the touchdown passes in the fourth quarter to bring Pitt from 15 points behind.

The score board read UCLA 21, Pitt 6 going into the final period. Tonic had already thrown a 9-yard touchdown pass to Ron Delfine for Pitt's only score up until then.

In the fourth quarter, Tonic opened up and began heaving. He engineered Pitt downfield, then tossed 9 yards to Fred Cox in the end zone.

The Panthers went for two points but failed and UCLA was still out in front, 21-12.

Tonic wasted little time and fired a 49-yard pass to end Mike Ditka for another touchdown with less than three minutes remaining in the game.

Again a try for two points after the touchdown failed and Pitt was within three points — 21-18 — of UCLA but now needed another TD to win.

UCLA was forced to punt with 1:56 remaining. Tonic passed 17 to the 16-yard line, and with only 31 seconds remaining tossed a strike to substitute end Steve Jastrzembski for the winning touchdown.

"No," he said, "I'm not interested in another job. You don't give up a $40,000-a-year job to go looking for another one. Right now, I have nothing in mind except to take a vacation with Mrs. Haney."

Haney took over as Milwaukee manager in mid-June of 1956, succeeding Charlie Grimm while the team was on a losing streak. The club promptly won 11 in a row but lost the pennant on the final weekend of the season to the Dodgers.

Haney won the pennant in 1957 and beat the New York Yankees in seven games in the World Series. He won the pennant again in 1958 but lost to the Yankees in seven games after winning three of the first four games. This year the Braves dangled much of the season, catching up in the last two weeks but finally losing when the Dodgers beat them two straight in a best-of-three playoff.

"We couldn't take care of the crowd here," Hargraves said. He pointed out that Warren has 3,500 season ticket holders alone and the Warren officials said that they could bring a following of close to 8,000 fans to East Liverpool.

Considering the fans that would attend from the East Liverpool area, the facilities at Patterson Field couldn't come close to accommodating the crowd.

The capacity at Patterson Field is 6,000 while it is double at Warren which has a new stadium that can seat 12,500.

Officials at Warren said that the demand for tickets has been greater this year than last. Warren which ranked third in the state last week has rolled over three opponents this season and are shooting for a state championship.

Hargraves said that East Liverpool has 450 season ticket holders. All season tickets will be honored at Warren and the seats will be in approximately the same location as they are at Patterson Field.

Season ticket holders should exchange their tickets before Thursday, Oct. 15 at either Dick Brian's Mens Store on W. 5th St. or at the high school. Hargraves said that if season ticket holders preferred their money would be refunded.

Merrill Hall, athletic director at East Liverpool said there will be "plenty of tickets" for East Liverpool fans and all seats will be reserved for $1.25. Tickets for the game are scheduled to go on sale next Monday.

Last season Warren officials said that East Liverpool drew the third largest crowd of the season there. East Liverpool coach Lou Venditti said he is in favor of the move. "If it can help us financially and pay off our debts I think it is a good idea," he said.

In its last home game, Warren drew close to 12,000 fans.

BERNIE ALLEN
Purdue Quarterback.

The winning pass thrown by Tonic also gave him a new Pitt record for most touchdown passes of 15 thrown by a Panther quarterback.

The old mark of 14 was shared by Bob Bestwick who played from 1949-51 and Corny Salvaterra who performed from 1954-56. Bernie Allen played a major role for Purdue in its big victory over Notre Dame Saturday.

He kicked four extra points, played safety man on defense and ran the Boilermaker offense most of the afternoon after the first unit quarterback, Ross Fichtner, was injured in the second quarter.

Fichtner suffered a shoulder bone fracture in Saturday's game and will be lost for the remainder of the season. It appears that Allen will be the No. 1 quarterback at Purdue now.

His four extra point placements split the uprights, and he intercepted a Notre Dame pass on the Purdue 13-yard line to stop an Irish scoring drive in the third period.

Allen connected for one 48-yard pass which set up Purdue's second touchdown.

Potter Game Shifted To Warren

Principal George Hargraves announced today that East Liverpool High School has agreed to shift the Warren-East Liverpool game on Oct. 16 to Warren after officials of the two schools met Sunday in East Liverpool.

"East Liverpool stands to make between $3,000 and $5,000 more by playing the game at Warren and we feel that this is enough to shift the game," Hargraves said.

"The amount we make on the game would pay about half of our debts," he added.

"We couldn't take care of the crowd here," Hargraves said. He

3-Tone' Coliseum Has Become Trap For White Sox

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Little Nellie Fox called it a "two-tone" field, but maybe still a third tone — spectator background — has made the vast Coliseum a World Series trap for the White Sox.

The play that could have turned the tide against the White Sox was a Dodger pinch-hitter Carl Furillo's two-run single Sunday, a bouncer just out of reach of Chicago's ace shortstop Luis Aparicio.

Bad hop single, everybody said, including Aparicio, one of the fastest men in the big leagues.

But to some in the press box, the ball appeared to be a tough, but not impossible chance for Aparicio. It seemed he started a split second slow to his left for the Furillo smash.

"You can't see the ball come off the bat," Aparicio conceded, even though he said "If the ball stays down, I've got a chance to get it. It took a little bad hop over my glove."

If Aparicio had fielded the ball, he had only to make a short flip for an inning-ending force play at second since the bases were loaded.

Casper Wins Oregon Golf

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP) — U.S. Open Champion Billy Casper, after going three months without winning a tournament, got back his putting form and took top money in the $20,000 Oregon Centennial Open Golf Tournament which ended here Sunday.

Casper led the field by three strokes with a score of 269 for 72 holes on the par 35-37-72 Portland Golf Club course.

It was on the same course that the burly Apple Valley, Calif., golfer won $33.33 for 30th place in the 1955 Western Open — his first tournament on the Professional circuit. His 19-under-par for four-day Centennial Open earned him $2,800.

Greenfield Lady Wins 300-Mile Race Sunday

C. Papenry's Greenfield Lady topped the 300-mile course from Greenfield, Ind., in 5 hours, 58 minutes, 56 seconds to win the East Liverpool Homing Club race Sunday.

Miss Reliable, also owned by Papenry, was second while R. Glynn's Blue Belle was third.

East's Panthers Lose Opener, 8-0

East Palestine scored a touchdown and conversion in the last four minutes of action to edge East Junior High School's Panthers, 8-0, Saturday morning at Patterson Field.

The game was the season's opener for Coach Dom Cascio's East High Panthers who saw their scoring opportunities halted by costly penalties.

Cascio said his starting linemen turned in an outstanding performance defensively. East is scheduled to meet Toronto Thursday at the Jefferson County school, although the game is subject to postponement to a later date.

Local Field Champion Wins 16th First Place

Field champions Bown's Hans, owned by Charles White of the East Liverpool Beagle Club, won first place and the trophy at the field sponsored by the Summit Beagle Club Sunday at Boston Heights.

It marked the 16th first place for the champ. The trial was sanctioned by the American Kennel Club.

17-0 Loss And Argument Is Bothing OSU Coach

By FRITZ HOWELL

Associated Press Sports Writer

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — De-

flated by Friday's 17-0 setback at the hands of Southern California, Ohio State's question-mark Bucks had a not-too-bright future today as they began gathering up the pieces.

The rest of October could be a nightmare. Here's how it stacks up for Coach Woody Hayes and his sophomore-studded squad:

Oct. 10: Illinois — 20-14 winner over fourth-ranked Army.

Oct. 17: Purdue — 28-7 victor over eighth-ranked Notre Dame.

Oct. 24: at Wisconsin—44-6 victor over Marquette.

Oct. 31: Michigan State — 34-8 winner over Michigan.

Hayes has bounced back from non-conference losses before to set the Big Ten agog with his devastating attack and rugged defense, but 1959 seems to offer the biggest challenge to his coaching strategy.

A personal argument over whether he struck a West Coast writer following Friday's loss also is bothering Woody. The Buck coach says he didn't hit anyone, but may have shoved someone, to which Al Bine of the Los Angeles Examiner replies:

"If Hayes says he didn't throw a punch, he is an unmitigated liar."

The Bucks were not the only Ohio power to fall in the wave of weekend upsets. Also downed for the first time were Youngstown, Xavier, Cincinnati, Akron, Wittenberg, Kent State, Denison, Ashland and Case Tech.

That leaves only eight of the 35 Ohio teams without a blemish. As the teams head toward some rugged opposition this week, Heidelberg's Student Princes lead the state with three victories after their convincing 21-8 verdict over Wittenberg—the latter the lone unbeaten-untied team of 1958.

Ohio University ended Kent State's four-year domination 46-0 to take over the Mid-American lead, while Capital and Wooster are deadlocked with Heidelberg at the Ohio Conference top.

Capital's Al White, a 170-pound Portsmouth sophomore, was the weekend "Mr. Football." He scored on runs of 72, 42, 54 and 67 yards as the Lutherans swamped Hiram under a 40-0 avalanche. Saturday's top surprises were

Miami's 33-7 verdict over Xavier,

Ohio Wesleyan's 14-0 win over Akron, Cincinnati's 13-12 setback at the hands of Houston, and the Ohio State-USC result.

The weekend schedule:

Thursday

Baldwin-Wallace at Youngstown (night).

Saturday

Big Ten: Illinois vs Ohio State.

Mid-American: Miami at Kent State, Western Michigan at Bowling Green, Marshall at Toledo (night).

Missouri Valley: North Texas State at Cincinnati (night).

Ohio Conference: Akron at Heidelberg, Mount Union at Ohio Wesleyan, Wooster at Denison, Kenyon at Capital, Muskingum at Wittenberg (night), Hiram at Marietta (night), Oberlin at Otterbein (night).

Mid-Ohio League: Findlay at Defiance, Wilmington at Ashland, Bluffton at Ohio Northern.

Presidents' Conference: W. & J. at Case Tech, Western Reserve at Bethany.

Non-conference: Xavier at Ohio University, Dayton at Holy Cross, West Virginia State at Central State, John Carroll at Waynesburg.

Wildcats Spill Iowa In Big 10

By ED CORRIGAN

Associated Press Sports Writer

The Cinderella kids from Northwestern, riding the crest of a two-game winning streak and getting bolder every time they step on the field, could be heading straight for disaster.

Dick Thornton, star quarterback of the Wildcats, will be out six weeks with a fractured ankle suffered in last Saturday's 14-10 triumph over Iowa.

This Saturday, the Wildcats, long doormats of the Big Ten but now the proud favorites for the title, entertain Minnesota, 24-14 winner over Indiana last week.

Northwestern isn't the only Big Ten team looking for a replacement for one of its stars.

Purdue, one of the pre-season choices for the league title, has lost Ross Fichtner, the quarterback who engineered two touchdowns in the Boilermakers' 28-7 rout of Notre Dame.

Fichtner suffered a shoulder bone fracture in the third quarter and will be lost for the season. This week Purdue takes on Wisconsin.

Just to show that the Big Ten isn't the only league that plays rock-sock football, Yale has lost tackle Don Wall for the season. He broke his right hand in the Elis' 17-0 Ivy League victory over Brown.

ern in the top spot in last week's Associated Press poll, Louisiana State tackles Miami this week in a night game. This should be soft pickin' for the Bengals from the bayou, who knocked off Baylor, 22-0 last time out.

It appears that both LSU and Mississippi, No. 3 team in the country, will be concentrating strictly on their Oct. 31 date during the next three weeks. This could be the showdown battle for the championship of the tough Southeastern Conference, and the Sugar Bowl bid.

Ole Miss will be heavily favored over Vanderbilt this week after flexing its muscles at the expense of Memphis State, 43-0. Ole Miss has yet to be scored on.

Army, No. 4 and reckoned to be the class of the East, came a cropper at the hands of Illinois, 20-14. The Cadets' game Saturday with Penn State could go a long way toward deciding the mythical Eastern title. The Nittany Lions tumbled Colgate, 58-20, last Saturday.

In the general shakeup of the top teams, Oklahoma and Auburn, which were left on the outside looking in after their defeats the previous week, made bids to get back in the select circle. The Sooners whipped Colorado, 42-12, for their 72nd straight Big Eight victory, while Auburn turned back Hardin-Simmons, 35-12.

Still Have Good Chance, White Sox Pilot Claims

LOS ANGELES (AP) — "I still think we have a helluva chance to win this series."

"We'll give 'em all we have."

The first quote quite obviously came today from Manager Al Lopez of the Chicago White Sox, now trailing two games to one in the World Series.

Manager Walt Alston authored the second, and that was the setup today heading into the fourth game of the big money war.

The Dodgers took their 3-1 win Sunday in stride. There was no hullabaloo in their dressing quarters after the game.

Alston, puffing leisurely on a cigarette, described it in tongue-in-cheek fashion as, "another easy one."

Al Lopez noted: "We haven't done anything easy all year. So it will probably be the same thing in this series."

The main discussion centered on a sharp ground single hit by pinch-hitter Carl Furillo off Gerry Staley. It came in the seventh inning and brought in two runs.

There was disagreement by observers here, and possibly by the nation's second guessing television audience as well.

The ball went past Luis Aparicio, the superb Sox shortstop.

Sitting glumly in his tiny dressing cubicle, the little Venezuelan explained:

"I got a good enough start on Furillo's ball, but it took a 'leetle' bad bounce over my glove. The background is rough on fielders. You can't see the ball coming off the bat."

Said Furillo, a happy veteran of seven World Series as a Dodger, "Right after I hit the ball, I didn't think Aparicio was going to get it."

Furillo said he was surprised when Alston selected him to pinch hit for Don Demeter. He thought another veteran, Duke Snider, would go in despite Snider's ailing bad left knee.

"All I had in mind when I went up there was just to meet the ball."

Salineville Wins First; Stops Beaver Local, 22-6

SALINEVILLE — After Beaver Local drew first blood, the Salineville Indians bounced back to score three touchdowns and record a 22-6 win—their first victory of the 1959 campaign—here Saturday.

Salineville Boosters To Organize Tuesday

An organizational meeting of the Salineville Boosters Club will be held Tuesday at 6:30 (EST) at the high school auditorium.

Carl Hoppel, Beaver Local half-back, plunged over two yards and the TD in the first period.

Later in the opening quarter, Bud Leatherberry intercepted a Beaver Local pass and ran 65 yards to knot the score at 6-6.

Dave Gearin ran for the two extra points and the Indians were in front to stay.

Another touchdown came in the third period when Gearin scampered 40 yards to paydirt. The final Salineville tally came when Jerry Malone pounced on a fumble in Beaver Local end zone for the touchdown.

Panthers See Steelers

Fourteen members of the Chester High School varsity football squad were guests of the American Legion Post 121 Sunday at the Pittsburgh Steelers-Washington Redskins game at Pittsburgh. Assistant coach Dick Bryan accompanied the players.

HEROES OF the third game of the 1959 World Series are left-to-right Larry Sherry, who relieved in the eighth inning, Carl Furillo whose pinch single in the seventh scored the first two runs of the game and Don Drysdale, starting pitcher for Los Angeles. Sherry struck out the side in the ninth inning. (UPI Telephoto)

Lisbon Defeats Poland For Third Straight Win

POLAND — Two fourth period touchdowns broke a 14-14 tie and earned Lisbon a 30-14 victory over Poland in a Tri-Country League battle here Saturday.

The victory was Lisbon's third straight and second in league competition.

Paul Fry proved the hero of Saturday's game by streaking for two touchdowns in the fourth period to put Lisbon on top.

Fry ran 15 yards for one TD then scooted 5 yards for another.

Halfback Tom Brooks tallied a pair of touchdowns in the first half. The first came on a 7-yard run while the second was a 60-yard pass play from Tom Bowling.

Jerry McCallin scored both touchdowns for Poland on runs of 70 and 37 yards.

NFL Crammed With Upsets

By MIKE RATHER

Associated Press Sports Writer

Using the mercurial Tommy McDonald as his chief executioner, Ol' Man Upset has completely scrambled the form sheet in the National Football League's two-week-old campaign.

The fleet-footed McDonald scored four times Sunday to lead Philadelphia's downtrodden Eagles to a methodical 49-21 demolishing of the Eastern Division champion New York Giants in a weekend crammed with upsets.

The 5-foot-10, 180-pound Oklahoma All-America caught passes of 55, 33 and 19 yards for touchdowns and sped 81 yards with a punt return for another TD in his most productive day of a three-year career.

Jimmy Brown got the job done for Cleveland, carrying a near-record 37 times, gaining 147 yards and scoring twice as the Browns whacked the Chicago Cardinals 34-7. The Cards were last-minute picks as favorites.

Things were no different in the West, where Chicago's Bears bounced back from an opening game upset to upend NFL champion Baltimore 26-21 despite three TD passes by Colt quarterback Johnny Unitas.

Green Bay and San Francisco, generally figured to battle for last place in the West, wound up as the only undefeated teams. The Packers whipped Detroit 28-10 and the 49ers thumped highly rated Los Angeles 34-0.

Washington responded to a tongue-lashing from Coach Mike Nixon for a 23-17 triumph over Pittsburgh.

Cleveland Arrested For Illegal Liquor

CLEVELAND (AP) — James French, 48, was arrested on a charge of possessing untaxed liquor in a raid at his home here Sunday by federal agents and police.

He was taken to the Cuyahoga County jail to await arraignment today before U.S. Commissioner H. A. Horn.

Four automobiles and 240 gallons of illegal liquor found in the vehicles were seized by the raiders, who said the raid broke up a major moonshine importing operation. They said French, a foundry worker at an automobile plant here, owned the seized autos and apparently hired persons to bring the liquor to Cleveland from Tennessee, where he formerly lived.

Agents of the alcohol and tobacco tax unit of the Internal Revenue Service said the moonshine importing operation had been under surveillance for months. They said French sold the liquor to wholesalers, many of whom peddled it on Cleveland's East Side.

A few of the nearly 500 half-gallon jars of moonshine were kept as evidence, but the others were smashed by the raiders.

Agents said sources of the illegal liquor and other persons who might have been involved in the importing operation still are under investigation.

2 McConnelville Jail Escapes Are Captured

McCONNELLSVILLE, Ohio (AP) — Waverly D. Young, 24, of Jefferson and Charles Johnson, 27, of McConnelville are back in jail here today—the same jail from which they escaped Sunday.

Young, scheduled for arraignment today on a statutory rape charge, and Johnson, an ex-convict, tried bricks from a wall in their first-floor cell in the Morgan County jail and escaped early Sunday, Sheriff S. A. McConnell reported.

Later Johnson was arrested at the home of his brother here. Young was captured on Ohio 77, 12 miles north of Marietta, when authorities stopped a motorist who had picked Young up.

Young is charged in the assault of a 14-year-old girl July 17. Johnson had pleaded guilty to a charge of auto theft and was being held for possible return to Ohio Penitentiary for violation of parole.

Unscheduled Vacation Due After Bomb Threat

CINCINNATI (AP) — Students in nearby North College Hill are slated for an unscheduled vacation because of a bomb threat.

The public school board and officials of St. Margaret Mary Roman Catholic Parochial School decided Sunday night to shut the schools. Public schools include the high school and four elementary schools.

Dr. James Bryner, school superintendent, said an unidentified caller told a woman about 9 p.m. that "a North College Hill school building" would be bombed. She relayed the threat to police.

The Fire Department started a search of all six school buildings Sunday night and police said they would guard each school all night.

Ohio State Nurses

Assn. Opens Meeting

CINCINNATI (AP) — The Ohio State Nurses Assn. opens its 56th annual conference here today, and delegates aim to talk over ways to interest more people in nursing.

In a general session Tuesday afternoon, Lee Lovenger, a Minnesota attorney, is slated to tell of economic security for nurses. Wednesday, Dr. E. R. Chable is to address a dinner meeting on the philosophy of nursing.

At other meetings, delegates will hear talks on infectious diseases, juvenile delinquency, occupational rehabilitation and drugs.

The conference ends Thursday.

How Can I

By ANNE ASHLEY

Q. What can I do about the wooden steps on my porch where rain water is constantly collecting?

A. Why not insure this draining off by boring a number of small holes in the steps? You can then sandpaper the whole surface smooth, and paint to preserve the wood — including, of course, the inside of the holes.

Q. How can I repair holes that have been worn into linoleum?

A. Fill the holes with a paste made of shellac and finely ground cork. When the mixture has dried, sand it smooth, and paint to match the color of your linoleum pattern.

Q. How can I remove tarnish from copper or brass articles?

A. Put some fine salt into a saucer. Dip into it a cut lemon. Rub on the metal. The acid will remove the tarnish.

Killed In Car Crash

ELKINS, W. Va. (AP) — Miss Elizabeth Cross, 27, of (201 Newton Pl.) Canton, Ohio, was killed Saturday night when she lost control of her automobile and it crashed on U.S. 3, about 25 miles east of here.

OFF THE RECORD

'Here's How' For Sake

County Oaks Help Slake Jap Thirst

When the Japanese learned from U. S. Army occupation forces after World War II that aging in the wood would improve the taste of sake—their chief alcoholic drink—it set off ripples in international trade circles that reached all the way to an obscure 150-year-old lumber mill in Kensington, a hamlet along Route 30 in Columbiana County.

The Reeder Lumber Co. is busy turning out mounds of white oak stock, shown here, for barrel staves for shipment to Japan, where they're finished and assembled into the containers in which the fermented rice beer is aged.

A lumber broker who had been approached in the quest for white oak staves remembered the little lumber company at Kensington, which is operated by Arthur Reeder and his son, Russell Reeder. At the time, the firm's business concentrated almost entirely on quarter-sawing lumber for furniture manufacturers. The lumber was produced by sawing logs into four sections and then finishing them into rough lengths before shipping them on to manufacturers.

Reeder agreed he would be able to turn out the rough barrel staves for the Japanese so long as his supplies of white oak held out. That's how the new business was born. Although the bulk of his product is shipped to Japan, he also sends the white oak stave blanks to England and Ireland to be used for barrels to age beer. Two Scotchmen approached him Thursday to supply staves. They also want them for beer barrels.

White oak, the only lumber suitable for aging an alcoholic beverage, is non-existent in Japan, Reeder explained. When the Japanese decided to try aging their sake, rather than drinking it virtually straight out of the vat, they searched the world market for supplies of white oak staves. The heavy white oak has seams that are virtually impervious to moisture, Reeder explained. If the sake went into barrels made out of soft wood, most of it would be absorbed in 8 or 10 years of aging, he explained.

The Kensington company has no direct contact with the ultimate purchaser. Its staves are shipped by tractor-trailer to Canton, where they are crated and moved on to one of the Great Lakes ports. Then they're shipped out via the St. Lawrence Seaway for the long voyage to Japan. Until the seaway opened a few months ago, the staves were hauled to New York City by tractor-trailer to be loaded onto an ocean-going vessel.

Part of the white oak supply comes from Columbiana County and the balance is trucked in from nearby points in West Virginia and Pennsylvania. At present, the Russells are buying most of their white oak logs from lumbermen who haul it to Kensington from points near Hundred, W. Va., Waynesburg, Pa., and a site near the Greater Pittsburgh Airport in Allegheny County.

The Reeder turn out the staves in a rough form to avoid the higher tariffs that would be imposed on finished goods. Cut to shape and finished roughly to length, width and thickness, the staves are sent to Japan for the final touches and assembly into barrels. The staves range in length from 24 to 52 inches and they vary from 3 to 6 inches in width. They are about 1½-inch thick.

The lumber mill has been in the Reeder family for five generations. The elder Reeder is proud of the fact that his great-great grandfather, Sam Reeder, settled at Kensington in 1802, a year before Ohio became a state.

He moved from the area around what is now Tyrone, Pa., settling with a band of peaceful Indians. After establishing a homestead, he returned to his native Pennsylvania community and married his sweetheart. On the trek back to the Ohio wilderness, the bride rode the newlyweds' only horse and her husband walked.

The elder Reeder lived in East Liverpool as a young man. He attended Ohio Valley Business College and 53 years ago—when he was in his early 20's—he operated the Liverpool Restaurant on Dresden Ave. about a block off the Diamond.

Ohio Reduces Its Weekend Traffic Deaths

Ohio Weekend Fatalities Roundup
By The Associated Press
Barring late reports, Ohio cut its traffic death toll greatly the past weekend compared to the weekend before, the Associated Press count for the 54-hour period from 6 p. m. Friday to midnight Sunday shows.

There were 10 fatalities this time, one of the smallest totals in recent months. There had been at least 20 the preceding weekend. Five miscellaneous accidental deaths raised the total from all causes over the weekend to 15.

No multiple-fatal mishaps were reported, which is unusual.

Freak accident of the week probably was the electrocution of a 69-year-old Canton woman when, barefoot, she touched a ground wire attached to her television set. The plastic bag got into the act, once again proving more than just a bugaboo, as a Columbus infant suffocated while sleeping against one covering his pillow.

The fatalities:

Friday Night

Gary Zacher, 15, of West Richfield (Summit County), struck by a hit-skip motorist on Ohio 303 in West Richfield.

Saturday

Steve Cseplo, 76, of Cleveland, struck by a train in Cleveland.
Mrs. Myrtle McGath, 29, of Grafton, when the car she was driving crashed on a curve just south of Elyria.

David L. Milton, 3 months, of Columbus, suffocated by a plastic pillow cover at his home.

Thomas H. Roberts, 59, of Columbus, crushed under a power shovel near a Reynoldsburg gravel pit.

Walter F. Coakley, 51, of Cleveland, when his car left Ohio 75 near Oak Hill, he fell out and the auto rolled over him.

Harold E. Harsh, 21, of Minerva, when his motorcycle collided with a car on Ohio 80 south of Alliance.

Johnny Viars, of Fairborn, when his car crashed on U.S. 35, 5½ miles east of Xenia.

Melvin Barnes, 48, of Cleveland, when his car skidded on a wet street and hit a utility pole in Cleveland.

William J. Hoag, 38, of North Canton, when he fell down the basement steps at his home.

Sunday

M-Sgt. Roy M. Dellomey, 27, when his car hit a bridge abutment on Ohio 741, eight miles south of Dayton. He was en route to Fort Campbell, Ky., where he was just assigned from Fort Hayes in Columbus.

Linville Shepard, 24, of Cincinnati, of injuries suffered when the car he was driving struck a utility pole in Cincinnati.

An unidentified woman, about 50, found on a road near Ohio 616 in Mahoning County and ruled an apparent traffic victim.

Mrs. Mary Hudy, 69, of Canton, electrocuted when she touched a ground wire attached to her television set.

James Gordon, 14, of Sycamore Twp., struck by a car on U.S. 42 near Sharonville, where he had been reported hitchhiking.

Chester Street Project Due To Begin Tuesday

Mayor Burton Ward of Chester today announced the River Asphalt Co. of Newell will start resurfacing of Fairview Rd. Tuesday as part of the annual city summer street improvement program.

Mayor Ward said the street will be closed to traffic while the work is in progress and for 24 hours afterward.

The mayor and his wife returned over the weekend from Miami Beach, Fla., where they spent a week—a prize won recently at a stock car racetrack.

Providence, Rhode Island, ranks after Boston, Mass., in size among the New England states.

Japanese Speaking Officer 'Shakes Up' Capital Tourists

WASHINGTON (AP) — "I sure shook those tourists up this morning," said the handsome young policeman across the street from the White House.

Washington police treat tourists fine, so explanations were in order.

These tourists, it seems, were Japanese.

"They were really interested and asked a long question, but their accent was so heavy I only got the general meaning," the policeman went on.

Well, how did he shake them up?

"I answered in Japanese."

A Japanese-speaking policeman in Washington — this one learned the language in the Army — isn't really much more of a curiosity than, say, a baby-delivering policeman elsewhere. After all, the Washington downtown scene normally includes strollers clad in kimonos, saris, turbans or a variety of resplendent uniforms.

A French visitor who wanted to see an exhibit in one of the government buildings was stopped by the Negro guard, who explained the department was closed on Saturday afternoons. The visitor went away, remarking audibly in his own language that something was lacking in American hospitality.

But he turned quickly when he heard, in flawless Parisian French "Perhaps, monsieur, an exception could be made."

It was the guard. He made the exception with a flourish and a conducted tour — in French.

Washington's various police and guard forces — Metropolitan, Capitol, White House, Park and others — are federal agencies which recruit from all parts of the country. The system brings in not only an occasional linguist, but all the regional accents and, besides, a real friendliness toward people from the hinterlands.

50 Attend Episcopal Regional Vestry Dinner

Fifty attended the annual regional vestry dinner of all Episcopal parishes of the Ohio Valley Sunday afternoon at St. Stephen's Church here.

The Rt. Rev. Reginald H. Eber Gooden, missionary bishop of the Panama Canal Zone, was guest speaker. He was introduced by the Rt. Rev. Nelson M. Burroughs, bishop of the Diocese of Ohio.

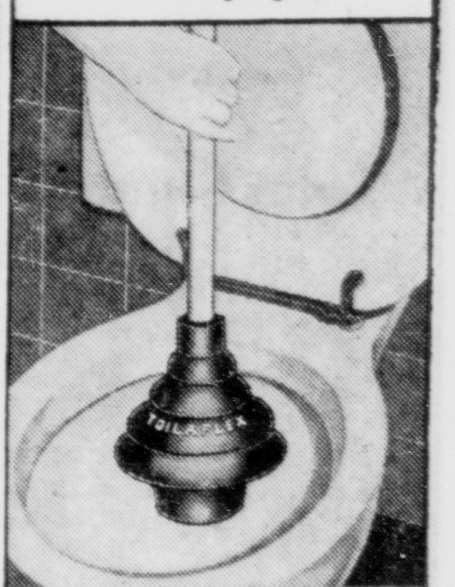

The region, which is part of the Southern Diocese, includes St. Paul's and St. Stephen's Churches in Steubenville; the Ascension Church at Wellsville and the host church, of which the Rev. Marc Anton Nocerino is pastor.

Following the dinner, the group sang hymns, with Mrs. Jane Rife at the piano. Edward Massey Jr., showed slides.

The dinner was served by the Youth Fellowship.

State Commander Honored At Event Of 40 & 8 Society

About 100 attended a homecoming banquet at the Chester Masonic Temple Saturday night honoring Charles W. Morris of Chester, commander of the West Virginia 40 & 8 Society.

Guests from throughout West Virginia, along with others from Ohio and Pennsylvania, attended the dinner at which Frank D. Bowman, regional director for the Veterans Administration at Wheeling, was speaker.

Bowman spoke on the new veterans pension program recently approved by Congress.

Nineteen of the state's 21-member executive committee met in the morning at the American Legion home to discuss activities and plans for the fall and winter. Morris presided.

A tea was held Saturday afternoon at the post home for wives of visitors, with the 8 & 40 Society of Hancock County in charge. A dance followed in the evening. George LaNeve of Newell, state auctioneer, was general chairman of the homecoming.

Radioactive Level In River Boosted, Survey Indicates

The amount of Strontium-90 in the Ohio River near East Liverpool more than doubled in the last three months, but still remains far below the danger point, the U. S. Public Health Service reported over the weekend in Washington.

Strontium-90 is a byproduct of nuclear explosions and lodges in bone marrow. In sufficient quantities it can produce cancer.

The amount of radiation from Strontium-90 in a check point at East Liverpool was 2.1 micromicrocuries per liter in the second quarter of 1959, compared with only .9 micromicrocuries in the previous quarter, the agency said.

The National Committee on Radiation Protection and Measurements has set the maximum permissible level of the element at 80 micromicrocuries per liter for the general public.

At other check points along the Ohio River, the measurement of Strontium-90 also showed significant increases except at Evansville, Ind.

A check at Cincinnati showed an increase from .6 to .9; at Huntington, W. Va., .8 to 1.1; at Cairo, Ill., 1.1 to 2.9, and at Evansville a decline from 1.8 to 1.6.

Many snakes lay eggs, but most of the venomous ones and many of the commonest species produce living young. The young are ready to fend for themselves as soon as they leave the egg, but usually are protected for awhile for the mother.
